

JESUS LIVES

“When the New Covenant started many of the laws were changed, enhanced, or terminated for the new Christians. All people on the Earth had a new set of rules to live by, and a new Church to attend.

The souls within the Earth had not been dealt with yet, until Jesus died and descended into Sheol to initiate The New Covenant there. The ones that were in eternal punishment...unless they received some mercy, remained in Hell for all eternity. For those who had mercy, most went to Purgatory to continue to expiate for sins against God during their time on Earth. There are many varying levels of Purgatory, so the sorting out was quite a task, but Jesus had multitudes of angels to assist Him.

For the ones who died in a state of righteousness, purity, and holiness, these were already in the realms of Heaven; yet some in Sheol had completely expiated, so they were allowed to approach the Gates of Heaven, and were given their rewards and specific instructions on their path forward. Jesus was not involved in this, for after He administered Sheol, He went to the Father to celebrate His victory over death and sin. This was one of the most joyous days that any of the realms of Heaven had seen since the beginning of time.

The New Covenant then was given to the Heavenlies, and all those within it knew of the new forms of life that would come about forthwith. Jesus became more predominant in Heaven, and His presence was everywhere...in more of a personal way than before the New Covenant. He was and is acknowledged as The Savior of mankind and The King of Glory, and He has a seat at the right hand of God.

He now prepares for the Millennium and all that this entails, the magnitude of which is staggering.

He is also quite active in these last days, along with the Holy Mother, and all the saints, and The Holy Spirit, diligently working to call as many as can be reached back to God so that they will not perish in their sins.

He also prepares for battle with the anti-Christ and his hordes, for there will soon be violence on Earth such as has never been seen before, as the Revelation story plays out.

So this is a time when all people of faith want to hold tightly and cleave closely to Jesus, for He will be their security through the terrible times that are directly ahead.

He will not fail you...do not fail Him.”
