

YOUR MISSION

“You can tell which of the people will be saved, by the love in their spirits. Righteousness lives in love, holiness lives in love, purity lives in love—and obedience is because of love. I have said many times that love is a ‘Being’ and to live within it, and I will remind you again...you cannot be saved without a spirit of love. You must love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, and love your neighbor as yourself.

This does not mean that you should excuse all activities and espousals of your neighbors, nor emulate them in sin; rather, this means that you are to live and forgive them with the patience of Job, and not hate them because of their sins; but love the spirit and soul as it would be without sin, and profess Christ to them so that they will have The Holy Spirit about them when they are ready to search for God.

If you love them but never testify to them, they will not know the source of your peace and happiness; thus they will not find it. Be not afraid to bring your Savior to them, for if they do not accept Him now, the seed that you plant may grow to be a full grown ‘tree of life’ in them. This is what love does freely given, with no agenda...other than to introduce one to Christ.

Be confident in your witness for you have the eternal truths to support your faith, and there is no science that will prove you wrong. The truth must be known, and when it is known, it sets the people free; free from the clutches of Satan and his demons, and free from the curse of the world and all the punishment that ensues from it.

You as an interested neighbor, can save one from an eternity of pain and suffering—do you see the awesome power of this? All it takes is love and the courage to speak it freely and with conviction, the same conviction that you have gained by living in the spirit and seeing the works of God.

Do you not want all others to have what you have? Then give it freely and unselfishly, as the ultimate gift that never ceases to satisfy. You have been given this gift freely, you did not buy it, so it should have no cost when given to another; just give it in love, and give it frequently and with care, concern, and patience.

If you do this, you will be surprised...when you least expect it someone will come to you and say, ‘will you tell me about this Savior of yours’? When this door is opened, you then will gain an eternal friend; and all the saints in Heaven will applaud you, and the angels will sing praises.

So be diligent, yet humble in giving your testimony; and live a life exemplary of the gift that you have been given, and are giving away. Shine with the light of The Lord within you, and speak the truth—make this your mission.

Welcome to the mission field, my brother in Christ.”
