

06-06-2019 A Message from: The Holy Spirit

YOUR WAY IS NOT THE WAY

“When they do not hold to My Word, there is always a debt to pay; for you were made to follow My Will, and My Will is displayed in My Word. If you are outside My Will, you then are in your own, or someone else’s will; and unless that will is perfectly aligned with Mine, you are then outside My Will.

Then while outside My Will, you are also outside My Plan for you, and your time is essentially wasted; and another element of time passes, with you stagnating in your growth and in your pre-planned path to righteousness.

Your plan has a time limit and has many challenges along the way...all that are placed there to aid you in growing and passing the necessary test, in order to be worthy of the Heavenly Realms. For you to be off the path, is time wasted that will need to be recovered somewhere else along the path; and replays of your daily lives retard the growth to the ultimate goal that has been set before you, since the beginning of time.

This is particularly risky to you because with too many delays in your growth spiritually, you may not have adequate time while in this realm, to reach God in the way that He has planned; and if you fail to attain the spiritual level that The Lord has set for you, then you must learn and grow in a different realm than Heaven after you physically die.

There are very well-defined minimum standards that God has set forth, in order for a person to enter the Heavenlies, and there is no resetting these standards; they are fixed until the end of time, and even thereafter. So as you can see...in God’s Infinite Mind He has ordained that you stay on the path to holiness, and not to choose to divert into the thickets filled with worldly things and temptations of Satan.

This is all for your benefit, and great rewards are waiting for the obedient ones who cherish being in the Will of God. His Way is the only way that leads to fulfillment and peace. Have you heard the colloquialism ‘you reap what you sow’; well, this applies to what you sow to The Lord as well. If you sow obedience...you reap righteousness, holiness and purity—and you honor God, which leads to much greater things for you in every passing day.

If you sow disobedience...then you reap strife, misery and failure. This is an eternal truism, and there are no exceptions. If you could see the end of life for all souls who have lived and died as I do, you would attest to this truth as well.

No one is treated specially, and no one has an easier path to God than anyone else. God is justice and truth; and all who come to Him, come on the basis of what He has set forth, as the criteria for them and all who love and want to serve God.

Can you imagine being in the service of God...what would you not be able to do as you serve God? There are no limits that God has for you as you serve Him, for He is everything, and everything belongs to Him. As His servant, you become a custodian of all the Wonders of God; and He allows you to freely serve in that capacity. To your delight...there is no end.

Contrast this with serving yourself. A very hollow concept, is it not?

Blessings in your obedience.”
