

LIVE DILIGENTLY

“Tarry with those who are righteous, talk patiently with the wise, learn from the holy, emulate those who are pure, and walk in the ways of The Lord. These simple methods of life will lead you to happiness, and peace, and security. You will walk with God, and abstain from evil; and will grow in the spirit such that you will commune with the Spirits and relate personally with your Savior, Jesus The Christ.

You can do this. Just rise in the spirit and let the physical fall away as you focus on the higher things, and not on the world. This is wisdom, and you can become wise by following these directives; then bless others with what you have gained.

You are whole when you share yourself with others—for this is how you were created...to help, aid unselfishly, give from your riches, and bless with your love. This is being a good vessel of God; and as you play this part, you receive from God, then pour it out on others.

As you empty yourself, God will fill you again with great things for you to pour out again; and every time you come to Him, He fills His vessel with even greater wisdom and blessings, to pour out on others.

You, when you are In Christ, should never be timid in approaching God, nor in approaching others with your knowledge and love. Just give it away, then watch as The Holy Spirit works in the hearts and minds of man, after you have planted the seeds.

Mostly, this is all that you will have to do—plant seeds, and occasionally water them with kindness and love. This keeps those who are searching, open to the nudging’s of The Holy Spirit as He moves those unbelievers from death to life; and for your efforts in this, you reap great rewards in Heaven.

In fact, this is how your home is built in Heaven, through works of mercy and grace. Every time you give of yourself to another, with no thought of recompense, materials are sent to Heaven; and the angels, and perhaps even those whom you love, who have gone on to Heaven before you work on the construction project.

Some homes are modest, and some are very elaborate, all predicated on the good works and righteous life of the one on Earth. When you consider that this home, in your domain of Heaven, will be your permanent abode forever...you realize that in your few short years on Earth, you must be very diligent in your works, for time is short by which you have to move in righteousness, as you build your home.

There are many who have no home at all, and far more who were fortunate to just barely make it to Heaven, and far too many who fall to damnation. Do you see your mandate here? Do you see how important this facet of your short life is? Then be about your Father's business, and by your grace and mercy, save souls for the edification of The Lord.

Be diligent My Children."

YHWH

—John Patmos

Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness. My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.
