

HUMANITY

“As a general rule mankind began with Adam, for he was whole and made in My spiritual image; yet there were many animal creations that roamed the Earth for many years prior to Adam.

Adam was an elevated being, significantly more complex and advanced over the other creations on Earth. Bear in mind that there were at that time, very advanced beings in other realms, but not on the Earth.

All animals were made subservient to Adam, and they loved one another, and cared for one another. It was a beautiful example of meaningful coexistence between creatures, and it was good...at least until Satan spoiled it. Then the Covenant was struck, and Satan ruled the cursed world and still does today, but for a very short time yet.

Prior to Adam there were many creatures of many species, and types, and genders, sizes, and colors. They were gallant beasts that knew Me, and they praised Me with their obedience. They too lived together in peace and harmony, until Satan poisoned them to the Truth. He caused them to war against each other, and created an environment that was continuously hostile to both the creatures and the spirits who also inhabited the Earth.

Throughout the entire time of the ‘great ones’, there were also human-like creatures that lived amongst the animals, and they were more animal than human; but they could reason and make things, in order to enhance their existence. They were not like humans of today, and they were not given the same opportunities as are humans of this day, for they did not have the hope of Heaven, nor did they have capabilities of self-reign, and complete freedom of choice, and a strong intellect. They were animal-like, and their spirits were not made in the likeness of Me, such as today’s humans are.

Human beings truly are blessed in the opportunities that I created within them. What other creature has the ability to have a glorified body, and live forever in the presence of God? None other has this opportunity and promise. However, what comes along with that opportunity is a great responsibility for holiness, righteousness, and purity; and without this no human will see God, and many will doom themselves by sin and poor choices in this life on Earth.

You can see the magnitude and the awesome power that I placed in today’s human beings, but along with privilege always comes responsibility and yours is an awesome one. Think of the vast chasm between the two potential permanent realms that a human will inhabit—Heaven or Hell. To anyone with any wisdom, this should be frightening to the very core of the being.

This is why My Word states that ‘the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, knowledge and learning’; not the type of fear that a child has of a dangerous animal, but a fear like a child has when it has been knowingly disobedient to its parents. In this case fear is a responsible form of love, for chastisement by a higher authority is given for correction, and thus for the good of the one being corrected.

Your Father loves you and wants to spend eternity with you...do not disappoint Him and yourself, by a derelict life—be responsible and ascertain a perfect life in Heaven.

Blessings for obedience.”
