

GROW YOUR SPIRIT

“If you think that you know much about anything and that the learning process has stopped, then you are the fool. If you think that knowledge is limited to the physical and the five senses, then you are the fool. If you ignore all that you and science cannot explain, then you are the fool.

Open your spiritual eyes and recognize and foster your sixth sense—‘spiritual touch’. There is as much to learn about the spiritual, as you have learned about the physical, and it goes on forever.

Your physical being is not the predominate part of your total being, it is only a temporary shell for the soul and spirit. Also the Earth in its current form, is not permanent either; it will be changed for all eternity and you will see changes in the Heavens as well, and the Heavens expand every day of your human time.

Rather, the spirit and soul are you—the eternal you—and they do not change; the spirit grows, but the essence of you does not change. Then it compels the human being to focus on that part of him that is predominate, the most significant part...the spirit and soul.

Physical development is important only to the degree that the shell maintains its integrity in order to house the spirit and soul; but spiritual development is critical to the forever existence of you, and the state of your spirit also determines the paths on the journey that you take, and thus your final destination. Your spiritual development is the most critical thing that you can do during your time on the Earth and even thereafter, providing of course that you do not fall short and end up in Hell. Then there is no more development, just pain.

Spiritual growth is like planning for your future, and only a fool ignores his future in deference to the present, and just ‘living for the day’. This living for the day and seeking physical pleasures, and completely ignoring the spiritual—is poison to the human being and eventually kills it and all its hopes for the future; and the future balanced against the present, is no comparison at all. The life span that you spend on Earth, is just as the wink of an eye in eternity...just like one breath in a long life, just like one raindrop in a storm.

Only a fool looks not to tomorrow, and only a great fool ignores eternity. All preparations for the eternity are done now, in every second of every day that you live, and every action that you take is recorded; thus your preparations are also noted by The One Who makes the decision, based on your history, as to the final end of your path.

You see, everything that you do on this short beginning path of your spiritual eternity is extremely important; and one act of preparation leads to another, and the next to the next; and the more focused you are on your eternity, the more aid you receive from those in the Heavenly Realms, in order to accomplish your life's mission. That mission is simply to reach out for God, and strive to be acceptable by Him so that you can be in His Presence eternally.

Study to save yourself.

Love always,

Ruach HaKodesh"

—John Patmos

See therefore, brethren, how you walk circumspectly: not as unwise, but as wise: redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Ephesians 5:14

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Romans 8: 6-9

For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.
