DIRE TIMES AHEAD

"I have had you shielded to a degree, but as you now go out into the general society of the unsaved, you see how dramatic the sin problem is. Most have an ambivalence to God, some are their own god, and most who profess to believe do not know the Truth and do not care to learn.

The world's situation is dire, and this is why it is necessary to create great events in order to shake the people back to a mentality of accepting a higher power than themselves. So this I will do, and due to the nearness of the end of the world as it has been, I will increase the severity of the cataclysmic events far above what you would see as major geological events.

These events will bring about major changes in the face of the Earth and will set people to wondering if there is a God, and if there is...if He is a God of Mercy. Millions will beg for mercy and few will get it, for in these evil days few are worthy. Pray to the saints for intercession on your and your loved one's behalf, for strong prayers will be needed during this time of God's Wrath.

You have value and God loves His Creations, but you must look at the world in an eternal view and assess the terrible toll that has been taken on God's children by willful and wanton sin—and God will have no more of it. It is finished and the time of grace is over, and Satan has been given a free reign to pollute the Earth and its inhabitants for one last hour...then The End comes.

He knows this and therefore ramps up his efforts to corrupt all that he can, for he knows of God's Plan and he knows his place in it. This is why even in so-called Christian nations, you see persecutions of Christians increasing, and in non-Christian nations, you see torture and death.

This will not stop until the Earth is shaken, and people will beg for the Truth, and cry for answers; then they will find that the answers have been in the Word of God for centuries—they have just failed to heed it.

This shaking will also make all humans realize that they are fragile and non self-sufficient, and that they need to look to God for their sustenance and hope. Their own gods will be destroyed, and them as a god, will fall to the point where they realize that they are only flesh and blood to life on Earth, but soul and spirit to eternity. They will fear death, for the shaking will cast doubts on their narrow view of life and the futility of it all...they will see a glimpse of eternity and grasp desperately to catch it, but then know that they cannot hold it without God.

Many will die of simple fear, for their faith in material things, and people, and institutions, will have been destroyed. They will be stripped of all that they value other than their lives...and for the ones left alive, there will be a desperate attempt to hold onto their lives; for they will now see that there are powers higher than they, and their pride of life and arrogance of thought will be gone forever.

The wise ones will immediately turn to God for mercy and salvation, yet the children of Satan with the hardened hearts will die...then die over and over forever.

Do not put yourself under the power of evil or the world as you approach the Calamity, turn now to God and He will see you through it all with the confidence that He will instill in you, in knowing that you are on the path to a much better place; and He will strengthen your faith to endure.

I show you the way, please take it.”

And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
