

YOUR PRAYERS

“Did you know that The Lord has provided for all the needs of every person who has ever lived and who will live in the few years to come? Did you know that these needs are not met because of the cruelty and suppression of vicious men on Earth? Even in the Curse, God has provided ways to aid all who live, and by working together God’s surplus can sustain all people.

Another item that can cause the needs not to be met is a lack of prayer. Prayer can contain many things, and one of the most prevalent is holy requests for sustenance. In the absence of such prayers, these areas are not dealt with in the spiritual realm, and thus not interacted in the physical realm.

Prayers of the righteous are very strong, so these need to be especially vigilant in their prayer life; for this gift given by God, needs to be shared actively for the edification of the needy, and the lack of prayer then is considered to be a sin of omission for these that are righteous.

Along with privilege, knowledge, and blessings, comes responsibility...and prayer is your communication link to the One Who can make your physical existences better, and these prayers will then be associated with miracles which can change lives and save souls.

Pray always and from the depths of your heart, and you will see God act on your behalf if these prayers are in His Will. This will also reaffirm your faith as well as the edification of others, for your faith will grow strong as you see all the Divine intervention brought about specifically because of your prayers.

You have power over realms that you do not and cannot imagine, and even in some of the Heavenly Realms, events are influenced by your prayers. You also have influence in the Realms of Learning, Knowledge, and Purgatory, if God allows...and these poor souls badly need your intercession. Do your compassionate part for these, and some will also pray and intercede for you as well; and all humans need every precious prayer that they can garner.

Prayer is your authority here on Earth given by God to influence God’s Plan. This is great power and it must be used carefully and wisely, for prayers amiss can do great damage...and can change events in a way that is not good for the recipient. Thus with all prayer it is wise to say, “If it be in your Will Lord...”, for you cannot always know what the eternal Will of God is.

Many times it will appear as though a prayer for a cause is righteous in the short run, but in the long run could adversely affect persons or the Plan, and you cannot be expected to see the Plan’s long term intentions; so give it to God, but pray mightily for those things that you know are in the Love of God, and those things that are good: morally, physically, and spiritually.

Prayer heals in many ways and at this point in the history much healing is needed, and soon most prayers will be about healing and salvation; so learn the most effective means of praying for these now, and you will be a great help to those in distress and those dying...there will be many.

Prepare yourself, for your righteous intervention will be very important in the years ahead."
