

THE MAN ENOCH

“Yes, Enoch was one of my most trusted vessels. He lived a life of righteousness and obedience, and I rewarded him greatly for it. He had many earthly possessions, a large family who cared deeply about him, and the respect of all who lived in his region.

He was considered to be a very wise man as I gave him knowledge and understanding of the secrets of man, Earth, and the spiritual realms. He never doubted the Word of God, and did not deviate from it throughout his very long life. His devotion to Me was extraordinary, and he pleased Me very much.

He did much to advance My Kingdom, and put fear into all who lived in sin. He did never back down from telling the naked truth, and telling it in a straight-forward way that all understood, and any who doubted would be confronted and convinced of their error. He was a mighty man of stature, faith, and mind, and all who knew him came to him for counsel, and his counsel always proved to fruition.

He even had a gift of prophecy, and he received messages from the spiritual realms regarding events that were to occur in the future, and they always did; for he never embellished the Word of God such as is done today, rather he told it with truth and boldness that you rarely see in this modern world of relativity, where no one is quite sure of what they believe—but they sure know what they think, as waves of sin push them about like a stick in the sea.

Enoch never pandered those who advanced their own agendas, but he set them straight and in line with the Word and Laws of God forthwith, and if any rejected his counsel...he sent them away.

He was strong and true and God sheltered him always, for Satan attempted many times to discredit and even kill him, but God would not allow it, and always kept him outside the reach of Satan and his evil horde.

However, when a confrontation occurred between Enoch and evil spiritual forces, he fought valiantly and viciously, and spared no one as he conquered those forces completely. Satan’s forces were defeated many times by Enoch and his angels, and Enoch never failed to praise God for his victories.

These same spiritual forces are alive today, and are just as active as they were in Enoch’s time; but in these days, they have little resistance from the people of today, and they subtly govern and control most of the humans today and they do so with impunity, because the humans of today know so little about God, and His Word, and His laws.

Today's people have given themselves over to evil, and are rarely aware of it or the effects of this evil indwelling. To be taken by evil is the worst failure that can befall a person, for it has eternal ramifications.

Each individual today has free will and an obligation to God and themselves to know the Truth, and the Laws of God...without this knowledge, they are as helpless as sheep among wolves, and indeed are devoured with ease.

Study the Word with a seriousness such that your life eternal is bound by it, for truly it is. This is the most critical knowledge that you will ever gain, and it is necessary to know.

Again, study to be approved."
