

CIRCLE OF LOVE

“When you think that you know enough about God and Creation, your being freezes in time, and your soul and spirit begin to drift. This is not the height of love, rather true love is a constant drawing closer to Him; constantly striving to know more about, and to be more like Him. To emulate your Creator is to love and praise Him, and He loves you in return when you do this, and do it from the depths of your heart.

Naturally as you become more like God, you grow in love, for God is the purest form of complete love that there is in existence; and you can attain heights in love that will marvel you, and all who know you.

Along with love comes wisdom...it is difficult to have one without the other; and wisdom is the prize that most humans desire, whether or not they want love to accompany it. But to achieve wisdom through love is far better; for then you as a human being, maintain a balance of elements that God inculcated within you many years ago, and even prior to your physical birth.

You have always had the capacity for love and wisdom...but due to numerous factors, the least of which is not the world and evil temptations, you may not have attained it. Always desire love, for in love is peace; and you need peace in your spirit, in your soul, and in your physical being.

Peace is also positive for health reasons, as your molecules react much better with one another when the body and mind are at peace and molecular conflict is low; and this slows the aging process and does not allow radical cellular activity to jeopardize your physical well-being. Peace also is a catalyst for learning, and therefore for gaining wisdom, so one feeds the other and your entire being benefits by this interaction.

Love puts your spirit to rest and this is important for your spiritual growth as well, for when your spirit rests, it can absorb the input from the Holy realms that tend to be the gateway for spiritual growth, and spiritual growth puts one closer to God. This too then, aids in the communion with God, and then blessings flow from God to you in the form of miraculous help and healing; and this aids in putting your being at peace.

This circle of wisdom exists in many different forms but this is the basic structure, and most of God's creations have this structure built into its fabric and emulates God when this process is healthy and active. Conversely when this process is interrupted or stopped completely, the creation stops growing, stops receiving blessings, stops loving, and wisdom is fleeting.

This can start a downward spiral in a human being, and can do much damage if not contained and curtailed; so always be aware that love should be the predominate force in your life, because so much else springs forth from it.

Remember, true love is a Being, and you need to be this being; for God is love too, and perfect communion with God is being In God; and you cannot meld perfectly with God unless you grow extraordinarily in love. This is why love is stressed all throughout God's Word, for it is a key to eternity with your Father.

Study love and understand it, then deploy it in your being as fully as you can. By this, you will be blessed.

Grow in love."

–John Patmos

Love has long patience, is kind; love is not emulous [of others]; love is not insolent and rash, is not puffed up, does not behave in an unseemly manner, does not seek what is its own, is not quickly provoked, does not impute evil, does not rejoice at iniquity but rejoices with the truth, 1 Corinthians 13: 4-6 DRV

In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another..... Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. 1 John 4: 9-10, 7

Let all your things be done with charity. 1 Corinthians 16:14

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: 1 John 3:1

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. John 14:21

Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins. In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding. Proverbs 10: 12-13

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. John 3: 16-18
