

RIGHTEOUSNESS PREVAILS

“For in The Lord you have great strength, but without Him you are tossed about like a leaf in the wind. The righteous know when they are in The Lord’s Will, for their existences are smooth and undefiled; but when they are on the fringes of His Will, or tending to their own will, things begin to tumble into chaos.

Even in trying times the righteous are at peace if they are in the Will of God, for they know that all things work for good, for those who are in the Will of The Lord; and they are confident of the right outcome that is in the Plan of God. The outcome may not be what the human expects or wants, but still it will be the best outcome in the eternal perspective.

This is why patience and trust are such important considerations in serving The Lord, for your ways are not His Ways, and your minds do not perceive as His Mind does; but rest assured that He always has your best welfare in His Infinite Mind, if you are striving for righteousness, holiness, and purity.

He is a God of love, and He gives His love freely and blesses freely to those who love Him, and attempt to perfect their spirits. As I have said before, God will lift you up if you are trying to seek His Face, and grow to be like Him in your spirit. He wants you where He is, and He loves to commune with you every moment of every day. You can do this. I know that this seems far-fetched, but it is actually how you were created, and how you were programmed to be, and to love—every moment with God.

Do you recall in the Bible, where it speaks of Adam communing in the garden with God every day? This is exactly how God laid out His Plan for human beings, and it has not changed over Earth’s time; and remember God’s time has not changed, for He is outside time; so He is in exactly the same state that He was in the days of Adam...the predominate difference is that now you live in a curse imposed because of sin. However, God’s Will for you remains the same, and He wishes to commune with you often; and He appreciates your efforts in seeking Him even greater today, because you must break through the curse and all its influences in order to be with Him completely.

He loves this because it shows that your choices are righteous, and your will is disciplined and aligned with His. There is no greater glory that you can bestow on God, than through this process; and there is no greater glory that will be bestowed on you by God, for your faith and obedience.

Draw near to God and He will draw near to you, and in this position you will have power and blessings that you can use for the grace and betterment of mankind including yourself and your loved ones. Your prayers will be very strong, and your love will intercede for the benefit of all that you pray for, including salvation and healing.

So remember to commune with your God, for much good in many lives will come from it, and you will be blessed, both here on Earth then in the Heavens, as you pass from death to life.

Be at peace with your God.”
