

HIGHER REALMS

“You had a question some time ago about the Holy Realms in Heaven, and as the book of Revelation mentions, My Kingdom will be manifest to the minds of humans in the last days: I will give a bit more information for the learning and edification of the wise and the righteous.

To attain the upper realms of Heaven one must live with the full intent of serving God, and not self. All that the one must do is governed by God’s Word, and it must be followed by faith; faith that does not look to the right or to the left, but continues down the straight path that God has ordained for the one in His Plan.

Those who do not reverence and follow all of God’s Laws, yet are properly forgiven of their sins and go through the appropriate expiation to cleanse their soul of these burdens, will attain Heaven and without a stop in purgatory; but they will be relegated to the lower realms of Heaven. These are wonderful indeed, but short of the incredible glory in the upper realms.

A soul and spirit must be glorified and prepared by God in order to inhabit the upper realms, for the higher the realm, the closer to God; and the closer to God, the more fortified the enhanced body/spirit/soul must be in order to sustain its existence.

God graces these righteous souls with this transformation, and as the rest of Heaven looks upon them they are amazed, for they reflect God’s light in such an intense way that it goes on, and on, and on; and their presence is seen and felt by all in their proximity. It is a sight, that by human terms would be like a piece of the sun coming close to the Earth such that all would gaze upon it who were able, and be warmed, graced, and enlightened by it.

You remember how Moses glowed in My Presence...well this will be a thousand times as intense, so the ones in the lower realms will be only allowed to see the ones in the upper realms only briefly, so that they are not harmed—yet given a live example of how they can be as they grow in the spirit, and reach out to seek God, and the knowledge of Him.

No matter what realm of Heaven that one is in, one can grow in spirit and stature; and God loves when His creatures press in to Him, and attempt to be like Him. He asks that you all do this even in your fallen state on Earth, as you are encompassed with the Curse.

Try to always emulate the Character of God: love, beauty, wisdom, truth, justice, mercy, grace, and all the characteristics that a good Father would have. This is how you show your love for The Father, and indicate to Him that you want to grow to be closer to Him. This pleases all in Heaven, including Jesus,

The Holy Spirit, the Holy Mother, and all the saints, and angels. They all love reports of obedient children, and applaud them, and encourage them to continue in love.

There is no greater prize in all existence than this, and God extends His Hand out to you, and you just need to take It and hold to It as you walk through the rest of your life. He will not let go, even as you pass from this realm to the next. He is a very good Father to all His children, and He cherishes their love and their presence with Him.

See the reward, and climb the stairs of righteousness...it is much easier to climb when you hold your Father's Hand.

Blessings,

Ruach HaKodesh"
