

THE MANDATE

“Righteousness, holiness, and purity, there is no substitute for them and there are no acceptable compromises. All in your life must be acceptable to God, and all soil on your spiritual robes must be cleansed, and you would be very wise to complete this process while you are still in your human form, for expiation and correction are far more difficult after you leave the physical realm.

All sins of commission and omission must be repented, forgiven, and expiated, in order for you to stand in front of your God in cleanliness and acceptability; and nothing will be overlooked or mitigated...God’s Word is clear, and all you must do is obey. Obedience leads to this ‘triangle of salvation’, and many regard it as the first and most important step in drawing closer to God, for how can one be close with their Father if they mock Him with disobedience.

Your Father knows all, and He knows what is the best for you; and He created you to live within this mode, and to ignore your innate spirituality is death and destruction—you were made as such, and this cannot and will not change.

The very essence of God is Love and Goodness, and this is the basis for how everything operates in all universes, and there can be no exceptions; for God is in everything, and He cannot be compromised with sin. So you have been given the opportunity, when you were placed into a human body, to be an integral part of this glorious, eternal existence.

I said opportunity—not guarantee...for the choice is fully yours through your human will. You may choose to save or doom yourself by every thought and every action, every second of every day; and for one to know what is right, yet not do it is a sin; and like all sin, it cannot exist in the presence of God. It must be gone completely, and all repercussions of it before you can exist in the presence of God, in the eternal.

The only reason that you are allowed to exist in sin now is because the Earth is cursed, and sin resides on the Earth, and it will be destroyed soon because of it. God’s Covenant with the Earth and the terrible curse that is part of it is now over, and now God has taken steps to warn all people before the end comes. This warning comes in many forms, such as signs, wonders, changes in weather, geographic shocks, unusual earthly events, changes in the heavens, prophetic writings such as this—thus giving specifics of God’s last day plans...and guidance to the lost and fallen, and references in the Bible, and other sources of God’s Word of these now occurring, and pending events.

Only a fool would ignore these warnings, and to do so is a death sentence in the physical and spiritual that results in an eternity of pain and suffering. The cost of your sin cannot be calculated in human terms, for numbers do not reach the ends of the repayment for refusing God’s Plan...and this from one that He created to be with Him. Sin is poison, and a poison that slowly takes your eternal life of peace away, in a slow, despicable process—and all with the full knowledge of this sin.

No one will be able to say “I didn’t know”, for all are called by their consciences, The Holy Spirit, and the Word of God, to be righteous, holy, and pure; and to turn one’s head from these cries for knowledge is an intentional act of disobedience and it will be judged as such.

These are harsh words to all My people, but to speak softly and gently at this point in time would not be responsible, for many need salvation and time is very, very short.

Heed these Words of warning, and remove all sin from your life.”
