

THE DAY OF THE LORD

“For out of every mouth will come praise for The Lord, your God. Every heart will leap for joy, and all thought will rise to the glory of their Master. None will be silent in The Day of The Lord. Fearsome will be His countenance, and stern will be His vengeance upon all who deny His majesty.

The hills will sing and the rocks will cry out in praise of their Master. He will come in glory to take with Him, His betrothed, and all who love and trust Him. Rejoice, for the victory will be yours and the Kingdom will be your abode!

Rise in your faith to meet your God, for He waits for you. Do His will in all things. Be ever obedient, and love eternally, and His presence will be with you. Rise in the spirit for your communion with your Master, for He loves to meet you there. Draw close, and receive the eternal blessings of The Trinity. Rise above the Curse, for The Lord is no longer there.

Open your heart and be one with God. Love His will and always be in it. Of such is The Kingdom of God. Go forth my little one, and claim the gifts that I leave for you. Be strong, and do not waiver in your faith and dedication to Me, and your own righteousness. Draw to Me by your works, help the poor and downtrodden, for in their humility they serve Me well.

Take My yoke upon you, and go forth doing good to all that you encounter; and you will be blessed.

Take this encouragement with you always, and continue to rise.

Love,

Your Father.”

—John Patmos
