

BLESSED AWAKENINGS

“When you look to the heavens, what do your spiritual eyes see? Do you see the magnificent precision by which all heavenly bodies are suspended in space? Do you feel the relationship between these bodies as their gravity and motion synchronize their existences? Do you see the Mind of God exercising His creative power?”

Do you see an end to it even with the most powerful looking devices that humans have managed to build to this date? No, you will not see an end to it and you never will, even if you are judged to be the most righteous and have access to all realms in the Heavens, you will never find an end to it—and God is continuously hurling new objects out into the endless nothingness of space, as He loves to create and share His creations with His creations...which creates the most wonderful atmosphere of love...endless love that one can conceive of.

Where you are in space and time is like a small closet corner in a vast and glorious mansion full of light, and your closet is not well lit and needs cleaning, and is occupied by all types of harmful creatures that plague humanity constantly. It was not like this before the Curse, and My sympathies are always with the inhabitants of the Earth, but the Covenant must be completed and indeed is almost there now.

Soon you all...at least the righteous, pure, and holy, will be released to the rest of this glorious mansion of light; and you will be free to live and learn and serve God and you will never hunger, thirst, or feel pain again, for all your needs will be taken care of by our wonderful Father; and you will have communion with Jesus, the Holy Mother, The Holy Spirit, and many saints and others who have the same station that you have. Your delight will never end and you will be at peace—never again to lack anything that is good.

Remember....the key to the Gate of Heaven, is righteousness, holiness, and purity; and without the key, the gate will not open and you will be left standing outside with only the options that Jesus The Christ gives to you, if you are in His Mercy.

When you stand before Him, you want to be able to hold your head high and look your Master in His beautiful eyes and say, “I have done the best that I am capable of, and I ask for your permission and blessing to enter the Land of Promise.” If you truly have done your very best and have all your sins repented, forgiven, and expiated, even all sins of omission; you can stand and eagerly await your Savior’s answer to your question of, ‘Well done My good and faithful servant, enter with praise and worship of your King, and live in the light and love of God.’ These Words are the most wonderful that any being can expect to hear, and all righteous deserve and are promised this as a reward for a life well-lived in obedience.

As you enter the Gates of Heaven you will be overwhelmed by all around you, but you will be overwhelmed by you as well, for your body will transform into a glorious body that is unique to your environment—and the higher the realms that you attain—the more glorious your body will conform; and those of great stature in Heaven emit light so bright that few can look upon them, and they emit love so strong that it fills all around them.

Be this saint and accomplish this now while on Earth, and you will be eternally grateful that you exercised your wisdom in this manner.

Blessed success to you in your pursuit of perfection.”
