

PREPARE AND PRAY

“I have many warriors now all over the world, and they all know Me and they all know of the time frame by which all last-days saints will act and react. Just like you, they all have the same directive...disseminate the Truth and save souls—and for all that I enlist over these next few years, they will have the same marching orders, for nothing else matters more than having My children return to Me....and freed from the clutches of Satan.

Some of My soldiers will be armed with great spiritual strength, some will be preachers, some will be prophets, some will be doctors, some will be survivalists, some will be farmers and ranchers, some will be intelligence; and there will be many miscellaneous skilled in varied other areas as well. They as an aggregate will comprise the necessary force to put in place My last-days Plan that is unfolding now.

There are refuges and missions either formed or forming all over the world, and the organizational details are being put into place for the benefit of those who will flee evil and need a sanctuary where they can rest and learn about God and Truth. All those chosen will be equipped with all they need to minister to the lost and hurting, and many will have the answers to the questions that the seekers have; and given the prevailing environment of the time to come, will convince even the most weathered skeptic.

When the Calamity begins, and as it progresses—no sane person will deny that it is supernatural; and those still in My Mercy will search for answers to their deep questions, and when they encounter the Truth, they will believe. At the same time the evil and unbelievers will grow even more hardened to the Truth, and yet will know by the evidence that God is behind the massive events that occur. Some will be so taken by Satan, that they revolt against God and His followers overtly, and some of the unbelievers will see the light.

But for most, they will fear and flee and do what they can to stay alive. Many of these will trust the governments that are in power at the time, and this will prove to be futile, because the governments will have no answers and will be of no help. All will be on their own, and this is how God has planned it.....so that people will be forced to view their lives, their beliefs, and their priorities. This time will also show people how little they know about the great things of creation, and how little they can do to change it...essentially people will admit their limitations and begin to fear God....and this is the beginning of wisdom.

It grieves Me to know that this extreme action is necessary to save souls at this juncture in time, but I have tried all else and most have not had the intended effect; even My precious church succumbs to evil. So the bell has been struck and the plan is in action, and My workers are coming together in preparation for the last great revival of Christ and salvation.

If you love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, and have not been chosen to serve in the last-day's army, pray long and earnestly that you be selected; for in your service you will receive great rewards.

Prepare children, for the time of terror approaches."

—John Patmos

But at that time shall Michael rise up, the great prince, who standeth for the children of thy people: and a time shall come such as never was from the time that nations began even until that time. And at that time shall thy people be saved, every one that shall be found written in the book. Daniel 12:1

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is prudence. Proverbs 9:10

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole mind, and with thy whole strength. This is the first commandment. Mark 12:30

And I will shew wonders in heaven; and in earth, blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood: before the great and dreadful day of the Lord doth come. And it shall come to pass, that every one that shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved: Joel 2: 30
