

GOD AND CREATION

“Now how did God make His Plan for Creation you ask...I will tell you a few things about this from the ‘Books of Learning’ in the ‘Libraries of History’ in Heaven.

As God existed, initially He observed all that was around Him and saw an empty slate on which to draw, and so He had to determine the very foundations for all that He was to build—those things that would define and determine reality for all that was built on the foundations—then atop the foundations, the parameters by which each creation would be bound and loosed.

The basic creations such as structural elements like your mountains, have very strict parameters and these cannot be breached because of the elemental makeup, and the degree to which the spiritual inhabits. Then in contrast, view humans who have significant physical limitations—but the spiritual realm guided by ‘choice and will’ allows much latitude above the foundations of creation. Humans are an example of the higher forms of life, especially since they were gifted with the ability to spiritually self-determine their final physical and spiritual state and location, by and in agreement with the foundations of God, or against them.

Evil was not one of the foundational elements of Creation, however it was a part of the Universal Reality, so it had to be accounted for and given location. Rather, the Foundations of Creation were Love, mutual consideration in existence, reverence and obedience to the Creator, sustainability of elemental life either in perpetuity, in time, or in eternity; mutual coexistence fostered by elemental similarities and structural augmentation; non-deterioration of spiritual molecules; corruption in decay of some physical elements, yet with mutual benefit to all with time elements for some of creation; mutual attraction of bodies of elements for symbiotic existence; God molecules in all Creation responsive to Him and reporting to Him; elemental change allowed only by the intercession of The Father; righteousness established by the Laws of God; Purity and Holiness established by the Laws of God; Love exhibited in all non-cursed creations, (few of God’s creations carry a curse); order as delineated in the heavenlies; Peace as a natural occurrence of life, joy as a natural occurrence of life in obedience to God; sustenance provided by God for all life, and denying none a higher existence through obedience; independence allowed based on the level of molecular complexity and freedom; rewards for all life in obedience to God; spiritual growth opportunities for all spiritual beings; additional realm attention for beings as they rise in spiritual growth; translocation for the ‘beings of higher state’ in Heaven; order in all universes in all realms, (except for the few realms of evil); propensities to gravitate to good, and to what is true, and to wisdom, and to the characteristics of God; a universal awareness of God in all life; continuous expansion of created things in empty space; but above all—Love that intertwines all existence and binds it together. Without Love, the foundations of existence crumble into decay and turmoil, for Love is a Being, and you exist within Love, whether you deny it or not until your physical death—then if you move on to the heavenlies, you continue to exist in Love.....but if you fail, you then live in correction, and/or pain and destruction.

You who are obedient and who attain Heaven, will have the opportunity to spend your freedom pursuing additional knowledge of the Foundations of Creation, as you pursue God.

There is much to learn, herein is just a sketch to enrich your journey to God.

With this I bless you,

Ruach HaKodesh”

But this is that which was spoken of by the prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass, in the last days, (saith the Lord,) I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. And upon my servants indeed, and upon my handmaids will I pour out in those days of my spirit, and they shall prophesy. Acts 2: 16-18
