

TO COME

“Look out at the mass of people around you...how many of those that you see do you think will be saved? How many do you think will be saved in the Calamity, and how many in the Time of Tribulation? As they carry on their normal daily affairs and are completely in the world—how then, will their attention be turned to the Word and the wisdom necessary to provide salvation? Do you think that they will do this on their own, and when will they have the time to carve out of their busy schedules?”

I can tell you that this is not likely for many, and surely not likely for most. This is why a terminal event must occur in order to sufficiently divert human attentions to that which they cannot see, touch, smell and hear; for few acknowledge their sixth sense ‘spiritual touch’, that they have had from the beginning. My Divine preference is just to win all by love, but due to the present state of the world, and the strong presence of evil that the people of this day have fully embraced as normal and acceptable, in My Mercy there is only one way to bring the largest number of people home...and that is to produce an event so major in the eyes of the people that they will see beyond what is usual and familiar.

What type of an event would it take for this shift of rationality, ask yourself as a normal human fully invested in your local culture and its ways. Would a huge storm produce this result...no it would not; but in these last days there will be many ‘warning storms’ that will lead up to the great events that will bring on the Calamity. Would a huge coastal flood cause the people to realize that their humanity is vulnerable and controlled by higher forces? No it would not, and there have been several already and there will be many more as we approach the times of terror. Would drought, changing weather patterns, multitudes of animals of all types dying, a shift in the polar axis, changes in seasonal weather patterns, strange events in the skies, miracles in human form on Earth, serious wars between major powers, evil in places of righteousness, and evil becoming accepted as good...cause the normal and rational human to acknowledge the Power of God, and the need for spiritual salvation? The answer to this is that some will reach out to the spiritual when these events become frequent and severe, but most will need to see the absolute devastation and poverty of the Calamity in order to submit to the Will of God.

Will you see the Truth now, or will you be one that must endure extreme hardship in order to become acceptable to God by your repentance? Those who accept the true Will of God and abide by His Laws in the early stages of this changing time in Earth's history, will be blessed as these events unfold, for expiation and learning are two necessary components of salvation.

The wise will read this and know that the warnings have begun, and those who have read and understand the Word know that these warning events will increase in intensity until the final warnings are over and the devastation begins on a mass scale. It is in mercy that I tell you this, for I wish that none suffer and die in sin, for the serious sinner who dies in unbelief has no redemption.

May you read these words, and understand and pursue The Truth for yourself in study and reflection—for the time of the end comes soon.

In love and mercy,

Ruach HaKodesh"

Enter ye in at the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there are who go in thereat. How narrow is the gate, and strait is the way that leadeth to life: and few there are that find it! Matthew 7: 13-14 DRA

And you shall hear of wars and rumours of wars. See that ye be not troubled. For these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
