

ALL ABOUT LOVE

“Once you see what I have done for humanity, and once humanity realizes what I have put out there for their taking, there will be no doubting of the love by which all was founded in the world. All was conceived in love, and it would still be the way that it was in the Garden had not sin caused the curse of the world.

However, there are no curses in Heaven, and all that waits there for you is love, and sights, and sounds, and smells, that will forever please you, comforts never known on Earth, and abilities given to the glorified body that defy earthly laws of physics. You will be limited in very few things if you attain one of the higher realms of Heaven, and the extent of your learning and enjoyment will never end. Can you imagine just thinking of a beautiful place that you would like to visit...then in the wink of an eye being transported there, you and anyone else that you wish to go with you?

You cannot imagine a place that has not been created in the heavenlies. God has been creating since the very beginning and He continues even today and He will continue for all eternity—and you depending on your realm of righteousness, will be able to go and see all that He has made, and you needn't bother taking along any medicine or vitamins, for you will always be healthy and you will feel no pain...just peace, love, and contentment.

God encourages all in Heaven to travel and see what He has done, for in doing this you learn more about your Father, and as you learn...you draw closer, and this is a part of the love that is exchanged between Creator and creation. Also as you grow in God, He rewards you in spiritual and molecular growth as well—and as you have these graces imputed to you, you will stand in amazement at who you are and what you have become.

You may even radiate love to other realms in your beauty with a brilliant light that touches all who it reaches. Yes, you can be a being of supreme love as you go forth in the ages to come and as you please The Father. You cannot comprehend nor fathom the extent of the love that He has for you, it is all consuming, and for those who have not reached very high heights of molecular growth, even a small amount of His Love would cause your elements to burn up immediately, and His Love is so intense and so strong that only a few can absorb it and stay alive.

This is why He loves it when you grow to be more like Him, for when you do, He can cast more intense love on you; and as you grow further, He can bestow upon you love that opens your eyes to miracles the likes of which no one has seen. As a Supreme Being of Love, God naturally loves to share, yet He must temper this to the state of all recipients, yet He also wants a closeness that increases, which is also a characteristic of love; so He wishes that all His creations grow and grow quickly, so that they can experience this great love to the fullest.

You recall in the Word how when Moses received the Ten Commandments from God, His Presence ignited the rocks on the hill on fire....and He had His Presence dialed back to almost the minimum for this visit, but any direct contact would have killed any human being. So you see that God desires for you to love and understand Him, and constantly open yourself to knowledge of Him and His Love; and as you do, subtle changes will occur and you will feel the power in your life; but the true power comes upon your attention of Heaven, as the Books of Wisdom then are open to you always.

Living in love is the highest form of existence in all the realms anywhere. Get started now, for all you do on Earth has great import in Heaven.

Love always,

Ruach HaKodesh”

—John Patmos
