

THE PATH TO GOD

“I wish for all to come to a knowledge of The Truth, for in this knowledge they may enter the gates of Heaven, if obedient. Ask yourself, how can I become a master craftsman without knowing the details of the trade and without the learned skills necessary to perform the work?”

The Lord puts His Word out in the world for a purpose, and that being to educate all in the knowledge of God and His Laws, so that all who wish to follow Him will know the details and will have a map to follow on their path from Earth back to Heaven. Without this map, how can one surely know the way back to God....how can one go from Rome to London without a map or guidance?

My Word gives you both, and both are required to keep you going in the right direction and will shield you from harm from those along the way who would subdue you and take your belongings. The Word gives light, light in a dark world filled with sin and evil, a light that will guide you along life’s path—and without this Word you must travel in darkness.

Look at My Word, study My Word, and live My Word, and you will be set free from the Curse, and your path will be straight and your burdens light. Ignore My Word and your path will be filled with barriers and dangers, and you will carry many burdens of sin that weigh you down such that travelling will be difficult. You must complete the journey all the way to Heaven....and if you delay or if you succumb to sin and the ways of the world, you will be curtailed on your journey and you very well might not make it to the end.

The Apostle Paul said that he had run the race and that he had completed it well. Have you wondered why he illustrated his life in this way? It is because he subscribed to the belief that he was on a path to God and that path was a lifelong challenge, and without fierce effort and dedication that he would not have succeeded in his journey back to his Creator.

Paul was accurate in his analogy and for some this is a good way to view life, for it helps one get through the difficult times and challenges that pose themselves frequently in the cursed world. If you view your life as a challenge, truly you are recognizing that your path back to God is not like a walk on a sunny day pressed on by a summer breeze, quite the contrary. There are constant threats to you and your spirit all along the path of life, and this has been so since the first sin, and it will be so until the return of Jesus The Christ; so you must be aware of them and you must know how to overcome them, and you must know how to be shielded from them, and this you can find in My Word.

You will find a detail by detail plan for your life, and with fervent prayer you will see God lay out your plan in front of you as you move along the path of life. You also see in My Word, cautions to stay on the straight and narrow path, for all outside that path is of the world and of Satan. This fine path threads through all this danger in a way that keeps you completely protected from destruction, it is a bridge that takes you through the battle for souls directly back to The Father; and as long as you are on the path you are safe—but step to one side or the other and you will be harmed....many times with eternal consequences.

Look at your life in this way and run the race of salvation and never concede your righteousness, holiness and purity, for they are eternal.

Have strength My children.”
