

TRUTH

“There are many who say that they believe, but the true test comes when their interests are to be put behind God’s interests. The ‘believer of convenience’ will make a thousand excuses as to why he need not follow God’s Plan. This is how you tell one who is not filled with the Truth. These deny the actual Deity of the Trinity, but consider It a good ‘value object’ to observe. As you have found, they also deny the Immaculate Being that is Mary, The Mother of Christ.

These people will shudder when they come face to face with their Maker, and the fortunate ones will only end up in the depths of purgatory; most will be damned. Pity these who have a ‘form’ of religion and not Truth, for they are consciously choosing death. Pray for these poor, poor souls—they are the deceived.

Stay with the Truth, and get the message out in the best way that you can, and leave all the rest to The Holy Spirit. This is your part, and this is enough.

I am sorry that you are downhearted. I will stand for you.

Jesus”

—John Patmos
