

WEAK CHRISTIANITY

“Your family is very much like most of the espousing Christian families in the world now. They know that there is a God and they know that they must serve Him and they know that they must read His Word and attempt to understand Him. What they do not know and understand however, is His Perfection; and this lack of understanding springs from idolatry, i.e. considering themselves as gods in their own eyes and extrapolating that perception to God The Father.

By doing this they limit God by their own characteristics and disciplines, and they believe that they are made in the image of God, therefore they think that God is a lot like them, this coupled with the delusion of ‘once saved always saved’, and that all sin is excused by God if one has said the sinner’s prayer, and that they are entitled to be raptured before the Times of Trouble, gives them a high degree of security in themselves and their lukewarm way of living their gospel.

They shun any radical interpretation of the Bible in a strict sense, because they are entirely comfortable with their misguided security that is gained by a liberal interpretation of the Scriptures, which entails completely avoiding the difficult ones as if they do not exist, or as if they cannot exist; because they read as though they require a very serious commitment to God’s Laws, and this interferes with the mode of living in the Earth and with the sins therein. Like a turtle who prefers to live life inside his shell because they do not want to see all the complexities around them, they accept their guarded environment as the complete truth of God’s teachings and mandates for their life.

For many it is just too frightening for them to think of the possibility of eternal suffering and eternal life at all, that they do not strive to learn anymore, for if they do they know that they will be responsible for the heightened learning. This is typical of most Christians today and they have a form of religion but deny the supernatural powers of it, and this spiritual aspect of Christianity is truly the only part of Christianity that requires faith, and faith is required for all that pleases God; for who deserves blessings for their beliefs if those beliefs allow the person to wander through life, accept sin, and expect to deserve to enter Heaven’s Gates simply because they say that they ‘believe in God’...even Satan knows this.

It is tragic that most Christians have been lulled to sleep today by teachers who water down the Gospel so that it could not possibly offend anyone, but in doing this they offend God, and although they have financial security and some popularity and respect for their short life on Earth, they will have none in the afterlife and they will be held responsible also for the mass failings of their 'flocks'.

All must know this, for this type of a weak belief structure will not stand; and for those who do not embrace and accept the entire Word of God, they will be held liable for blaspheming God because they have dismissed what He has said through His Word. That is right...blasphemy, which is one of the worst sins. How will you worldly Christians defend yourselves as you stand in judgment for this sin? You cannot. For all reading this, take it immediately serious and go back to God's Word and tackle all the difficult teachings such as 'be ye perfect', and retune your lives to line up precisely with what your Father has told you. His Word is not a 'suggestion book', it is mandatory for those who have a hope of Heaven.

Jesus wishes not to spew any out of His mouth at judgment, so have the courage and faith to live His complete Word. You cannot please Him otherwise. You fail on your own choices, so choose to succeed by your good choices...become righteous, holy, and pure, for there is no other way to God.

I bless those who bless Me."

2 Timothy 3: 5

Thou believest that there is one God. Thou dost well: the devils also believe and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? I know thy works, that thou art neither cold, nor hot. I would thou wert cold, or hot. But because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold, nor hot, I will begin to vomit thee out of my mouth.

Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither the things they say, nor whereof they affirm.This precept I commend to thee, O son Timothy; according to the prophecies going before on thee, that thou war in them a good warfare, Having faith and a good conscience, which some rejecting have made shipwreck concerning the faith.
