

THE HUMAN WILL

“So the story goes on.....neither God nor Jesus nor The Holy spirit have the key to your will such that We can insert it, gain access, and control it. This aspect of the human being God left sacrosanct in accordance with the Old and New Covenants.

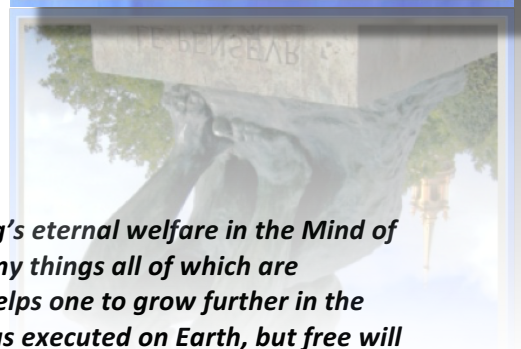

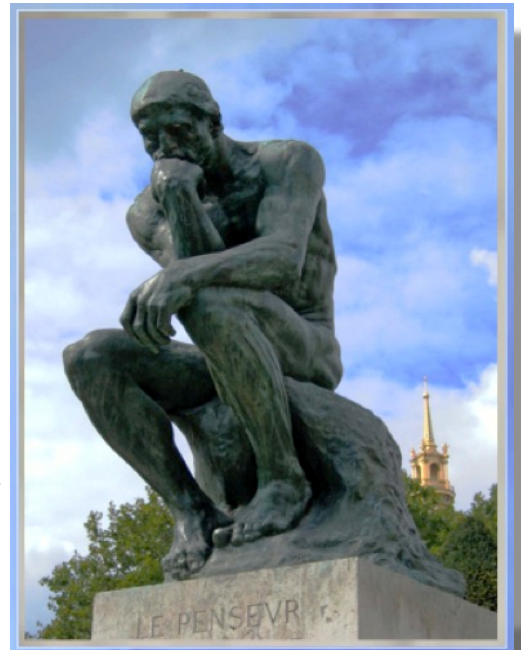

Human will is the ultimate power over circumstances while the human is on the Earth and the physical realm, but it does not emit any control over anything after physical death, for the spiritual realms are subject to the Will of God, but not man.

A spirit being who has been taken to Hell, can exercise the will that existed while on Earth, but there is no way to execute on any willful thought, simply because nothing is under the spirit being’s control—helpless would be the appropriate word to use here.

Conversely if a spirit being is in a realm of correction, he can will that certain things occur but there also is no power to execute. All a spirit being can do in these realms is to rise in the spirit and attempt to expiate for all human failures that have occurred while on Earth. The heart is the main source of healing and advancement out of the realms of correction, the ‘spiritual heart’ that if properly utilized can cause the process of penance to accelerate. This spiritual heart must become as the heart that the Word teaches about: pure and well intentioned. With the spiritual heart rising in love in the absence of The Creator, the spirit being will advance in that what is necessary to move on to better realms and circumstances.

In the Heavenly realms the will also has no control over events, all is controlled by God; but the spirit being is considered by God in all decisions relative to the spirit being...in love, and with the spirit being’s eternal welfare in the Mind of God. One who is in Heaven can choose to dedicate their focus on many things all of which are good...especially learning about God, for He blesses this choice and helps one to grow further in the Kingdom as one grows closer to God. This is a form of will such as was executed on Earth, but free will to choose evil as well as good, is no longer a part of the being; and given the absolute glory of the heavenly realms, none of the inhabitants wishes to have completely free will, for the historic evidences of cultural failures are overwhelming to the spirit being and to all else who inhabit the heavenlies, including the angels.

Wisdom can be gained for the willing human as they read this, in that in order to prepare for Heaven and to be approved by The Creator for heavenly inhabitation, one should begin now to exercise the will in the exact manner that it is applied in Heaven. Look to do only that which is good, not just for yourself, but for everyone. Learn about your Creator, and become more like He is. Grow in your spirit such that evil no longer is a factor in your life. Choose only that which is good in every thought and action. Focus on becoming and maintaining holiness, righteousness, and purity, with the strongest part of your will, and pray for protection as you rise to meet God.

Yes, this is literally what you do as you turn your life to these activities and as your will controls all that you say and do, you rise to meet God not just in this realm of the physical, but also the Heavenly realms...you set up the transition from this life to the eternal in Heaven, if the appropriate level of holiness is attained.

There is no other activity that is controlled by your will that can be more important to your eternal existence. The earlier you begin, the higher state you will attain.

Be not deceived by the confines of the world—spread your wings toward Heaven.

With love and blessings,

Ruach HaKodesh.”
