

THE WILL AND SIN

“I still love those who are wavering in their faith and those who fall victim to the sinful pleasures of the world, but I call them back in many ways frequently so that they do not become inextricably intertwined with evil and the terrible effects that it can have on their lives in the short term, but also with the long term issues that once provoked must be expiated and forgiven completely including the ripple effect on all others.

My love never fails even when one is sold out to Satan and evil, I will still send messengers and give signs to the corrupt one in hopes that the one would exercise good will and choose to return to the path of righteousness, holiness, and purity. For these, the path will not be as it was prior to the sin, rather the path will be steep and demanding and even minor infractions will be severely punished and rapidly.

For one striving to return to the straight path, I will send help all along the way, and all that the repentant one must do is to reach out and take it and if the heart is tender, the opportunities will be evident. For the wayward one, I can guide and bless as he works his way back into My graces, but the ‘guidance acceptance’ must be completely willed to be and accepted readily; this is full repentance and even a small inkling of a desire to revert to the old evil ways will cause all blessings and guidance to stop.....for the repentance must be whole and without malice and a want to return to sin.

I have warned repeatedly in My Word of the dangers of partial repentance. Have you not read where one who after salvation returns to sin, then becomes inhabited by many more demons than were once present and that the person is in a much worse condition than before? Have you not read that when one dedicates oneself to the works of God, then turns and looks back longingly to the previous life in sin, that then the one is not fit for the Kingdom? This all is true, for after tasting the wonders and peace and all good that comes from God then throwing it aside, mocks God in the most profound way and truly is considered a willful rejection of God in favor of sin.

This willful decision has doomed many to Hell, for it was not an inadvertent gesture of weakness, it rather was a fully willful choice to side with Satan over God. Such was the case with one third of the heavenly angels in the early times who chose to go with Satan and war against that which was good, and now they lament their eternal future that will certainly be in the Lake of Fire.

Your will is a very special part of your created being, this is the part of you that God respectfully gave to you that gave you freedom to love Him or not. This is the part of you that essentially allows you to self-determine your eternal placement. This is the part of you that gives you life or death. This is the part of you that must be trained and molded to be as God, and to love and trust Him and abide by His Laws. This is the part of you that can be your salvation or your worst enemy.

God will never force you to succeed, you must be proactive and will to succeed in all aspects of your life both physically and spiritually, and for this God crafted your will to be the perfect tool to accomplish this. Take this tool and use it for your eternal benefit and use it to glorify God and He will bless you mightily. Do not allow your base interests and persuasions to rule you, rather rule yourself strongly by a healthy and righteous will cultivated by good works and a love of your Creator.

Learn this and live.”

And when an unclean spirit is gone out of a man he walketh through dry places seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith: I will return into my house from whence I came out. And coming he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then he goeth, and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man in made worse than the first. So shall it be also to this wicked generation. Matthew 12: 43-45

Save thy life: look not back, neither stay thou in all the country about: but save thyself in the mountain, lest thou be also consumed.And the Lord rained upon Sodom and Gomorrhah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven. And he destroyed these cities, and all the country about, all the inhabitants of the cities, and all things that spring from the earth. And his wife looking behind her, was turned into a statue of salt.
