

SOUL SALVATION AND THE CALAMITY

“I feel your pain as you make all the necessary sacrifices in order to be ready for the two years of Calamity, but you must be steadfast, strong, and maintain a positive attitude as you look to the time of reward in Heaven. I am watching everything that you do and I know the ‘thoughts’ of your heart as well as you do it. I know you love your brethren and I know that you will do all that you can to help them to safety and salvation.

I will not leave you alone in this great task, I will be there to advise and help every step of the way, and your angels and the angels of those who have hearts for Me will assist as well in ways that will astound you. The period ahead is all about salvation and reaping the last of the harvest on Earth, and you and your helpers will play a key role in this as will others all over the world in the same position.

Be not worried as the events unfold, for you know that they must come and you know your role clearly. Do not focus on the terrible acts of man and of God or you will lose your courage, rather focus on the helping Hand of God and His promises to you as He executes His inevitable Plan on the Earth. Remember, He is Love....and while this period of terror must come about, He is watching and aiding all who truly want to follow His Path to Heaven.

The realms will traverse and evil will be prevalent and wars will be the way of life for this short period—then for those who are still living at the end of the Calamity, they will need to have a very good knowledge of end times prophecy, for their eternal future will rely on them escaping the trap of Satan.

Pray for all of mankind that they would leave the petty persuasions of the carnal world and come into the spiritual, for the spiritual is the force that controls all forever....and all must be in touch with it in order not to fail the test of time directly ahead. I tell you of these warnings not to generate fear, but to inform you of the gravity of the situation that you and all mankind will face. You need to be ready and you and all need to realize this, as it is a common day occurrence in that you must accept it in order to prepare and not be inundated when it comes.

Look at it as the future in reverse, and study it as if you have already gone through it successfully and you will do well. I know that you and all who follow My Words through this site have a healthy regard for what I am saying about the difficult times ahead, but you must move one step higher in your level of thinking from hypothecating to experiencing; for if you do this, you will be ready when it occurs and you will survive and you will be of great value in saving souls in this last stage of the Plan of God.

The Earth will pass away, but My Word is forever and My Promises are forever, so read about My Love and what I have prepared for those who love Me and you will make it through with your spirit unscathed. You and others may be martyred for your faith, or you may die in the course of the battle; but always remember the physical being that I have given you for your short term on the Earth is just a temporary tent, that when it has served its purpose will be folded up and moved to a new location, and death is just a transition that I will help you with, but on the other side is a wonderful eternity with no more testing and tears.

Be with Me all the way.”
