

ANOTHER REALM OF CORRECTION

“When one knows of the complexities of sin and all the internal motives, correlations with each individual’s created makeup, an individual’s strengths, weaknesses, interests, afflictions, will, learning, moral teachings by others, and opportunities...one then can see that the realms of punishment for deceased sinners must be as complex as the number of stars in your sky in order to fairly and equitably punish and reform all humans for every second of their lives in sin.

All is recorded and every moment of every person on Earth, or everyone who has ever been on Earth, is in the file of the Living; and when judgment comes, every moment including all thoughts and influences and circumstances are played back to the one in judgment and for the benefit of the Judges. This again, is why I tell you that your existence on the Earth is just a test, and by the results of that test you will be rewarded and punished....and this is why I implore you over and over to always be righteous, holy, and pure, for any other way of living is punished and severe dislocations are eternally punished in great ways.

You must immerse yourself in these three principles of salvation and know all that you can about them and actually live them with every cell in your being; it is critically important to love and acknowledge your Creator in this way and not to mock Him by outright disobedience and willful sin. I have told you about some of the realms in Heaven and some of the realms in the area of correction and penance and some of the realms of Hell; and now I will tell you that these realms are very numerous and infinitely complex....as complex as the life of sin that accompanies them.

In the area of correction there is of course Purgatory, the Realm of Learning, and the Realm of Knowledge, these in the order of severity; but within them there are vast complexities and degrees of punishment, penance, and correction, depending on the final ‘score’ of the test of life after viewing every moment of the life, and all have varying scores and degrees of influences and circumstances. There is no computer nor server made today that could store and disseminate even one case of judgment of a normal human life because the input is so voluminous, and due to the fact that God is a just God, He must allocate the appropriate punishment for each individual down to the very fine details of life/correction.

With this I will tell you of another realm of correction, the Physical Disembodied Realm of Earth...this is a realm similar to the realm of moderate Purgatory yet without the complete absence of God and the punishing fire of knowledge and purification. This realm then is not quite as severe and painful as mid-Purgatory but it has added risks, for if an individual disembodied does not reform and acknowledge their sins and willfully do penance and fully understand their sins and want complete forgiveness—they cannot emerge from this realm to another; rather it is like the Realm of Knowledge where there is always a danger of dropping to Hell.

This realm of the no-bodies is very lonely as the spirit can see all that goes on around it but has no influence nor effect on it, and normally the spirit is placed in a small area that cannot be breached and that bears a representation of a part of their life and will act as a constant reminder of the sin that put them there; and with many, the life of sin is relived over and over again. The hope of God in this, is that the spirit will recognize all its failings and ask forgiveness and fully expiate and grow in the spirit and righteousness, holiness, and purity, such that the spirit could emerge from this trap in the mercy of God.

Know yea this...live your life in a state of as near perfection as you can—for all failings will be purified if you are to enter the Gates of Heaven.

Be strong and choose to be righteous.”

But you do wrong and defraud, and that to your brethren. Know you not that the unjust shall not possess the kingdom of God? But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
