

WHAT IS GOD'S LAW TO YOU?

“What do men say that I am? Do they say that I am God...a god...The Chosen One...a mystical creature...a figment of the imagination...the great opiate of the masses...The King...a spirit...a scientific mathematical equation...a dream...nothing?”

Well...what you say I am, is all that is important to your salvation. You determine Who I Am by using many methods of inquisition; some of which are worship, as you see Me in all creation. You can find Me in everything, if you look closely enough; except for all the evil realms, and in evil itself. In this I am not present; yet, I created the free will, which led to poor choices, which allowed evil to creep into My otherwise perfect creation.

If you do not see Me in all else, then you have not developed your spiritual senses yet. Do this, and you will see images that you heretofore thought to be non-existent. You will grow in wisdom and Truth, and gain an entirely new appreciation of things beyond the veil.

You have heard the saying, ‘stop and smell the roses’; well I tell you, to stop and see God in the roses. He is there for your knowing as He is in all things—simple or of great complexity. He is also in all faraway places, for He created all, and all for His good pleasure.

There are also many Realms that have been created: some vertical, some horizontal, some oblique, some flat, some with many dimensions, and they go on forever. Some intersect and some do not; and they are all made, suited to, and for the inhabitants. Humans inhabit many of these realms, based on how they lived their lives on the Earth, and how they used their allotted time to God’s Glory. Most humans will be surprised to learn that they chose their eternal position by the choices that they made, every second of every day. The laws of God set the precept for understanding, and the script by which all will be judged.

Most humans will also be surprised by the expectations that God had for them, and that they woefully under anticipated how they needed to abide by every word of every law; and how all breaches change the eternal realms of inhabitation; and the ‘time frame’ of inhabitations, figuratively speaking, because there is no time in the eternal realms.

Be wise, and abide very closely to all His laws; and if a breach occurs, quickly repent, and expect expiation, and accept it graciously as it happens.

Salvation begins with the acceptance of Jesus as Lord, but continued salvation requires living as if Jesus Is Lord. Be wise and know that there is order everywhere in the universe, and you are expected to be in that order, not against it, nor outside of it.

Take these words into your heart, and make whatever changes you deem necessary and do it immediately. Do not fail God, and do not fail your eternal soul and spirit.

Peace be with you.”
