

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

“When you see danger in professing Christianity in the United States, you will know that the Calamity is ready to begin and in fact is at the doorstep. Your country was founded on Christian principles and these principles have served the country well, and it has been blessed by God as it pursued righteousness in its dealings with its people and with other countries around the world.

But now apostate influences have made their way into your government, and Satan has taken over the minds of many of your leaders although they are not aware of it. While they think that they are doing right for your country, truly they are serving themselves and the interests of evil.

Your country has been a bastion of strength and courage throughout the years of its history, and this came from a belief in God and a desire to do what is right by each individual, and the laws were drafted with this righteous thought in mind. There always have been bad actors, but in aggregate your country has striven to do what is in good conscience.

Evil has a very subtle way of entering situations...first the conscience is questioned, then beliefs are challenged, and then the individual is put above others and above God; and when this happens God takes His Hand from that situation, and in your case now—your nation. There is still a force of good conscienced people in your government, but their grip on power is fading because so many others are allowing evil to consume them.

You recall that I have said that you can save or damn yourself by your choices, and this damnation now sits on the heads of all who have abandoned God and the good morals that were the foundation for the U.S. This has happened to many other countries throughout history, and when most lost their purity and power they never got it back again. Such will be the case in the U.S., for when Christians are persecuted in the very country that their believing ancestors founded, God will initiate His Final Plan—for if the U.S. influence is gone in the world for that which is good, the evil influences from other non-believing countries will prevail, and God will not allow the inhabitants of Earth to go through another cycle of evil. He has already decided to bring about the Calamity and the Time of Trouble in order to offer all people the opportunity to see their sin and repent.

For a long time now God has been very displeased with the way that His creations have left His Love and have turned to the enemy, and while God is Love, He is also Justice—and the time for justice has arrived. So watch for this sign in the U.S. and when it comes to pass...insure that you and your loved ones are prepared to weather the storm and escape the evil domination that will occur for a few short years. This sign will be one of the very last and this sign will be one that is not mistakable.

This persecution will be exacerbated by Christians rising up to confront evil and those in government who propagate evil, and a great divide will form; and the two sides will battle in the spiritual and in the physical because evil will become so blatant that the killing of people simply because they have varying beliefs will be a consideration; and because of this silent propensity, fear will propagate the land and the true believers will rise up against those who seek to suppress them.

You see this now to a degree, but depending on the will and votes of the people it may be forestalled for a time, but in the end times evil and Satan will rise until the final battle and God will prevail, so be prepared for all this must transpire before the final redemption.

Stay strong in your faith and courage, and know the Plan of God and your part in it.”
