

THE TRUE WORD

“Let no one come between you and your faith. The naysayers who are the lost ones will think of a thousand reasons why you should not believe, but with proper research all will be found to be untrue; and again the instigation behind this attack on creation is either Satan, a lust for evil, or power, or the intellectual freedom to pursue the sin of the world. All these roads lead to Hell; and even though these lost scoff at the very mention of a real Hell...they will cry like babies when they are delivered to it, and their scoffing will be forever silenced.

When you hear about those who attempt to dilute My Word or change it in any way, flee from them and their teachings, for My Word reigns supreme and any divergence from it will be punished eternally; therefore, let no one take your studied eyes from the strict and literal reading of My Word. Indeed, I mean every word that I say or I would not say it; and all the Apostles who wrote the books of the Scriptures did so under the weight and guidance of My Thought, My Presence, and My Truth, and you may rely on all of it...and again let no one minimize the Books of My Word and let no man remove any Holy Scripture from the Book of My Word as it is to be presented to man.

As you look at history and view how God's chosen ones have adhered to His Laws and how they for the most part lived God's Laws, and if they digressed they came back to a full understanding and obedience because of a realization of God's presence, you will see a true heart for God and a 'fear of The Lord' permeate not only their faith in the Old Covenant but also into the New Covenant days as well. Then as the Church turned away from the original texts and as additional and simpler and more palatable texts were created and presented, you have seen a slow turning away from the true and complete Word of God; and this has allowed doubts and evil to creep into all facets of religious life because the standards for a righteous life have changed—according to what Christians read and believe.

This has put modern day Christians out of the fold of love and protection that has always been there for the righteous, and now Christians do not know how to define righteousness, much less apply it to their lives and live it such that they would be acceptable to God. So for the wise, you will take from this a knowing that if you will be in God's Will and Plan, you must know His Word in your life and in order to have the correct Word, you must relate and return to the original texts and understand that every word has been written for a specific purpose and that man has no standing to omit or change anything.

Woe to the believers of this modern age for in their error, they truly believe that they will die in mercy and be immediately shuttled to a glorious Heaven, just for believing and living what they perceive as a righteous life. Righteousness, holiness, and purity, will get you to Heaven, and exactly what these precious words mean is clearly defined in the original texts of My Word. It is every person's responsibility absolutely and without fail, to read and understand just what these words mean, then live the exact definitions every second of every day; and if even a minor breach occurs that repentance is done immediately and penance is prayed for in order to become clean again.

Always remember that your God is Perfect; and for any of His children to not want to aspire to be as their Father is rejection and a turning away from that which is good, righteous, holy, and pure.

This is not difficult when you separate yourself from the evil influences of the world, and as you do, you draw closer to God and an eternity in Heaven.

Live the Truth."
