

SALVATION

“All My children will know Me as sheep know the shepherd, but those who do not love and respect Me will stray as goats. Love is Our bond and this love cannot come about without belief, and belief cannot come about without study, and study will not come about without a dedicated effort on the part of the learner.

Salvation is free...but it does not just happen such as the sun appearing every morning—it must be pursued; and when attained it must be protected and sustained. Salvation is not fleeting...but it can be if the recipient violates the Laws of God and willfully turns from God and to sin. Then the cloak of salvation is released and the sinner stands naked and subject to the whims of Satan and his hordes, and in this state the human has little chance of emerging unscathed.

Salvation in its purest sense is ‘covering’ by the good spiritual forces and by God Himself, and it is an aid in all activities while on Earth; it is a protection from senseless tragedy and it promotes the power of prayer which also protects and defends. Salvation alerts and allows one’s guardian angel to react and fiercely fight any intrusion of evil and empowers spiritual forces in times of conflict, whether seen or unseen by man. Salvation in action is walking with God and on His Path to Heaven, and without salvation none will see Heaven. Salvation and righteousness, holiness, and purity, are the actual key to the Gates of Heaven and none will enter without these and be allowed to stay. Salvation requires a moment by moment effort by the saved in acting out all the tenants of God’s Laws and living within His specific instructions for all mankind.

Salvation can be had by accepting God’s only begotten Son as The Sacrifice for your eternal life, and living ‘In Him’ daily and following His life and emulating Him always. True salvation allows The Holy Spirit to inculcate your being, and in turn to give you great knowledge and wisdom and comfort and guidance to succeed in the challenge of life, and the struggle to retain your salvation as you grow in Christ and abstain from even the appearance of evil.

Paul the Apostle said that he ran the race and that in his observation he finished well, and this should be your observation as well. Salvation is struggle, for you are exposed to the Curse every minute of every day and you must strive to outrun it and stay ahead of it and stay pure. I have said before that there is no sluggards path to Heaven for the prize is so great that it requires dedication and energy to attain, and God’s ideal is perfection and to attain perfection is not to be taken lightly, rather it is to be struggled for and fought for with all the spiritual strength that you can muster.

Your struggle for perfection pleases The Father very much, and if you truly do your very best for perfection, you will not lose The Father's blessings. He sees your heart—and if your heart strives to be pure, He aids you in this quest for perfection. If your body strives for purity in accordance with His Laws, He aids you in your attention of physical purity and your battle with the Curse to retain it. He sees your spirit reach out for Him as you attempt to attain spiritual perfection and He then draws you close. You see, perfection is a two-way street; and it is not a street that you walk alone. God would not command you to be perfect if He knew that you would become frustrated in your attempts to attain it, rather He knows that for the ones who truly try to gain perfection...they will be satiated and satisfied with their progress and in the changes that they see within themselves.

To strive for this is to walk up the steps to Heaven one by one until you finally reach the top...and you reach out your hand to The Lord and He takes you with Him...forever.

This wisdom is yours, take it and use it."

And when the Son of man shall come in his majesty, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit upon the seat of his majesty. And all nations shall be gathered together before him, and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on his left. Matthew 25: 31-33

For if we sin wilfully after having the knowledge of the truth, there is now left no sacrifice for sins, But a certain dreadful expectation of judgment, and the rage of a fire which shall consume the adversaries. A man making void the law of Moses, dieth without any mercy under two or three witnesses: How much more, do you think he deserveth worse punishments, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath esteemed the blood of the testament unclean, by which he was sanctified, and hath offered an affront to the Spirit of grace? Hebrews 10: 26-29

And I do all things for the gospel's sake: that I may be made partaker thereof. Know you not that they that run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize? So run that you may obtain. And every one that striveth for the mastery, refraineth himself from all things: and they indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible one. I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty: I so fight, not as one beating the air: But I chastise my body, and bring it into subjection: lest perhaps, when I have preached to others, I myself should become a castaway. 1 Corinthians 9: 23-27

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them; he it is that loveth me. And he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father: and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. John 14: 21

Abstain from all appearance of evil. 1 Thessalonians 5: 22

Be you therefore perfect, as also your heavenly Father is perfect. Matthew 5: 48
