

THE GOD SEEKERS

“All the while you listened to The Lord and He answered. He knows your heart and He knows your strengths and weaknesses, and He loves you for your obedience. You strive for perfection and when you fall short, you repent and take your penance willingly. This is the way that spiritual growth occurs and this is how you grow closer to God.

Along your way...from time to time you look back to your station in the past and what do you see? You see a person of less faith and a person of less knowledge and a person of less wisdom. This is natural for the true seeker and the true vessel of God and this trend will continue all the way to the Gates of Heaven. Do not condemn yourself for your failures unless they are rebellious acts which should be condemned, rather treat them as learning experiences for the imperfect human caught in the trap of the cursed world. Your challenge is to overcome them and grow in righteousness, holiness, and purity and not accept failures and sin...but to conquer them and continue to rise to meet The Father.

This is your goal while on Earth and you will not be surprised to know that pursuing The Father continues to be your goal even in the eternity of Heaven, the major difference being of course that you will not battle the Curse and sin—all you will contend with in Heaven is your heart and your desire to become more like The Father.

Many in Heaven are completely satisfied in the being that they maintain...and they love all and flow with the environment of love in Heaven. There are also many who pursue the fascination of all that God has made and travel constantly in order to enjoy this. There are many who want to know all that they can, about ‘What’ is behind all the realms and locations of Heaven—and these are the God Seekers. They are driven by love and a strong sense of the ‘curiosity of truth’ and they will not be dormant until they learn all they can about The Creator God.

These will continuously rise in the spirit, in stature, and in molecular growth, and they will move through the realms towards God as the eras pass; and at some point they will be satiated and at some point they may see God—The Physical Manifestation. These in Heaven are referred to as the ‘Great Spirits’ and they are beacons of light and a strength of presence that overwhelms their environment...yet in a loving and caressing way that edifies all around them.

Keep in mind that there is no jealousy or envy in Heaven, for everyone is content with their state and even for the ones who continue to grow, they too are content at every stage along the way. As some grow and some do not, there grows also a chasm between them in capacities; and while this is not an issue for the greater spirits, it is for the lesser; for the lesser can only experience a limited degree of glory and if the glory emitted by the Great Spirit is too powerful, it can damage the being of the lesser; so God regulates this by allowing only a portion of the presence of the Great Spirits to be known by the lesser Spirit, such that the lesser will love and appreciate the greater...but only to the degree that it edifies without harm—for nothing is harmed in Heaven and nothing experiences bad...just love and contentment.

There are many in the Realms of The Great Spirits, some from human growth and some from the early stages of creation, and these realms will always be open to new seekers and the standards never change. As a seeker attains a new and higher realm, it simply opens up to them...and they move right into it—yet all lower realms continue to be available. God enjoys blessing His creations and He is always busy creating more realms and filling the current ones with more wonders....This is Love.

May you be blessed with the success in life necessary to attain Heaven as you grow in the spirit.

With Holy Love,

Ruach HaKodesh”
