

WISDOM AND AGE

“There are Catholics, then there are true Catholics...there are Protestants, then there are true Protestants...there are Muslims, then there are true Muslims...there are Buddhists, then there are true Buddhists; and so it goes for all the professed religions of the world.

All people profess to some type of religion if it is only belief in oneself. Where the true mark of character comes in, is when one commits to a belief completely such that it is the high point in their lives; and whereby one cares enough about their own self relevance that they research their faith and search for the depths of Truth in it. This shows true character and this is what separates the human from the beast.

Thus as you view humans at varying ages...you can judge the height of character by the distance that they have progressed to the goal of complete relevance and knowledge of Truth. As one studies all aspects of human existence, certain basic things become apparent; and as one studies history and past events outside the physical realm, certain things become apparent. There have been many ‘miracles’ over the years and still today, and they are carefully witnessed and documented, and as a seeking person reads about them if they have sufficient character...they will want to test the validity of them and search deeper into the subject and draw corollaries and connections with the extraordinary events; and in doing this.....Truth emerges.

Earthly facts are readily available and they assimilate together in a ‘not so coherent’ line of understanding and justification, and these incongruous aspects must be set aside for further study as one correlates the mystical aspects of existence. As one becomes illuminated by studying the supernatural occurrences throughout history, one begins to see Truth; and a seeker begins to apply this Truth to their physical reality, and the ‘not so coherent’ details of what they can touch and see...and suddenly it all comes together in a coherent and true understanding of how God’s Puzzle comes together and further how this all assimilates into God’s Plan.

There are no confusing details that do not fit once the seeker proves all through research—not only physical, but spiritual as well...for nothing will fit properly into reality unless the spiritual is considered as well. The beastly person cannot or will not progress past the physical reality, and as such his world will never make sense and he will be trapped in a reality of confusion and doubt; but the spiritual seeker will know wisdom by the process of searching, for The Truth is there...it is readily available for anyone to discover. Once one discovers Truth, if truly a higher being...they will rise up to it...and ascribe to it...and become it; then that one learns more through additional seeking and rises higher even yet.

So as you look at and communicate with a person of age—if they have properly lived their life and properly assigned the priorities thereof...you should see a very spiritual and righteous person; for this is where The Truth discovered leads. You should be able to ask this person any question and receive a response that reflects the Truth and imparts wisdom, and this person should be close to God The Proven Creator, and the person should have this fact inculcated deeply within them. This is where all properly sought knowledge leads, and for an old person not to have discovered this is a tragedy; for they have then missed out on their vital role while on Earth, and they have missed out on their hope for their eternal future that requires wisdom and the fruits thereof; and if that person is deserved of Heaven, their entry will not be glorious—and for most, there will be a long process of redemption and correction prior to their entrance to Heaven.

I have told you many times of how important these days spent on Earth are to your eternal future; and I will say it again—you are in a test, and every moment counts to the final outcome, and the final outcome determines your eternal path and position. Therefore, spend your time learning about all the mysteries that surround you and you will be led to the Truth.....and the Truth will set you free.

Take wisdom while you can, and live.”

And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. John 8: 32

Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, who received the word with all eagerness, daily searching the scriptures, whether these things were so. And many indeed of them believed, and of honourable women that were Gentiles, and of men not a few. Acts 17: 11-12

Because the Lord giveth wisdom: and out of his mouth cometh prudence and knowledge. He will keep the salvation of the righteous, and protect them that walk in simplicity. Keeping the paths of justice, and guarding the ways of saints. Then shalt thou understand justice, and judgment, and equity, and every good path. Proverbs 2: 6-9

That the aged men be sober, chaste, prudent, sound in faith, in love, in patience. The aged women, in like manner, in holy attire, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teaching well: That they may teach the young women to be wise, to love their husbands, to love their children, To be discreet, chaste, sober, having a care of the house, gentle, obedient to their husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. Young men, in like manner, exhort that they be sober. In all things shew thyself an example of good works, in doctrine, in integrity, in gravity, Titus 2: 2-7

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; Psalms 92: 13-14 KJV

For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death. Psalms 48: 14
