HOLY AND INFINITE LOVE

“Redemption draws nigh for all those who hear God’s Voice and believe. He will thunder through the waves and He will astonish through the wind, He will frighten through the volcanoes, He will threaten through the skies, and He will shout through the Prophets.

For those who have ears to hear and eyes to see...let them witness the Power of God sent down to the planet Earth for the awakening of His creations. He will shake the very foundations of the Earth and all on Earth will see it, He will change the Earth’s routines and all will feel it, He will make the Earth hostile to its inhabitants and all will know it. He will cast down those who have been their own gods and those secure in the flesh, and they will shake and shudder in the fear of The Lord.

His Majesty will be seen and felt in every corner of the Earth and only the servants of Satan will deny it. God will warn all His creations before He terminates all life, for He wills that none should be lost; and He will bring sufficient terror with impunity such that all will be given to the final choice to accept life or choose death. God is Love but His Love is pure and free and He will not force one to love Him, it must be a choice, freely chosen; and that love must be given without promise of any return...just given in love and for love.

This is the Key to God’s Kingdom...love, and all else builds from it; so first you must love and you must have love and you must live within love, for in Heaven you will be a ‘being of love’ and all around you will be the same. You will come and go and choose freely, but you will be a being of love, for God is in everything and God is Love and there is no curse of separation in Heaven; for this is the permanent abode of God and all who abide there abide in love...His Love virtually lights the realms of Heaven and there is no darkness.

All those who are great in God also cast a great light on all surroundings, for the greater the growth of the spirit, the more like God it will become; and part of this growth is the molecular change in the content of the elements of the Light of God. This is why as Moses could not behold God or he would die, such is the same in Heaven; for if one of lesser spirit would jump to the realms of the higher spirits, that lesser spirit would cease to exist...for the lesser elements would decompose in the presence of the greater; but this is a gift that God gives all His spirit beings, an opportunity forever to have continued growth in order to become more and more like God as the ages pass.

These ages that I speak of are not like ages of the time that you have experienced, rather they are ages predicated on the growth seasons of all spirits in Heaven. This is the ‘time element’ in Heaven and of such there is no end; for to be like God will take a forever of forever’s and even then, He will still grow and create and inhabit, so of such there is no end; and as a spirit abiding with God, there also will be no end to you if you gain Heaven through the test while on Earth.

What a Magnificent Prize....can you fathom even a small fragment of it? Do you see that it is meant for you simply in obedience to the Supreme Love? Do you see that it is a gift that has no price—for there is no way to quantify it? Can you see that your loving Father has simply placed this in front of you and all that you must do is to take it, respect it, and live it, denying the world and all the evil therein? This is a component of the Plan of God and it is all good and it is all for the edification of man and God, as God attempts to draw all His creations from a cursed planet and from the evil influences of Satan, back to His infinite Love. This you must do.

Meditate on the depth and breadth of this and you will see you in His Plan, if you strive for perfect love. Never give up to Satan for he has nothing that is good to give to you.

With Holy Peace,

Ruach HaKodesh”
