

THE GREAT RESPONSIBILITY

“For those who think that the Earth is coming to an end, you are correct...the key word being ‘coming’. Man will survive the Coronavirus with significant death, but man will survive. On the heels of this plague will come another in a different form, then another, then another, and so on. All of these events will be warnings to all cultures around the world that they are not within the Laws of the Covenant for salvation; and The Lord in His infinite mercy will continue to call all who will listen to come back to the Truth and live as He has created man to live—for outside His Laws is punishment as it has to be, but inside His Laws is peace and reward.

This is universal and easy to understand simply by reading His Word studiously and critically, as if one’s eternity rests on every word for truly it does. For some this may include a complete departure from current beliefs, for some a modification, and for some a tune-up of imperfect ways; but for all the Laws of God must be understood and taken deeply within the heart and lived from the depths of the soul, nothing is more important than this. I tell you nothing is more important, for if you could see from My view which is far above Earth and far into the Heavens, you would see the sequence of life and how some beings live joyfully within the confines of that which is put forth by The Creator, then there are some who live outside the vast arena that God has created, and these have the immeasurable pity and profound sadness of all who can view them in their selfish existences that have been formed without God.

Even now God gives all living adequate time and knowledge by which to accept or reject him, and few recognize the magnitude and gravity of the choices that must be made. Those who have ‘pride of life’ take little seriously and give little thought to their eternity and thus they are fools; and fools by their own choices are not given forgiveness unless there is repentance, forgiveness, penance, and expiation. An existence so magnificent and complex and an eternity so profound is not to be taken lightly, for in doing so one mocks God and all that He has done to create this magnificent existence and the wonders of an endless eternity.

Recalcitrant sinners do not see their foolhardy life of denial of Truth, for they are blinded by willful ignorance and by evil accepted as normal practice; this is the MO for most humans in this particular time in history, and this is why God must shake them to their foundations in order to bring them out of their vice-ridden stupor. God knows this, has accepted it in His Plan, and has initiated it to its conclusion.

Take heed all doubters of Truth...for your turning to God early rather than later will dramatically add to your glory or will dramatically reduce the pain and suffering that you must endure for the correction of all errors of life and the far-reaching effects of every one. I have said this many times... penance served while on Earth far exceeds (in magnitude and duration) penance done in the Realms of Correction; so now search for the Truth and as you gain it, put yourself in it and go through the process necessary for holiness, righteousness, and purity just as soon as you can, and gain as much wisdom as you can before you take your last breath on Earth; for from My view I can tell you that the profound advantages of doing this takes one from the realms of darkness to the realms of light.

From your view you cannot imagine the darkness, loneliness, and isolation that one experiences even in the higher levels of the highest Realms of Correction; it is immense and it is all that the spirit being can tolerate, but it is necessary for a complete cleansing unto purity; for without purity restored none will see God. You must understand these principles of existence, for it applies to you, a human creation of God, and there is no escape. You were created within a specific plan, and outside the perfect plan there are few alternatives.

So learn about your Creator...read all these 'Letters of Truth' and change all of your life to reflect them as a new being In Christ. You have been given a great responsibility, live it correctly."
