

ANOTHER WARNING IN LOVE

“As you see these events unfold over the next few years, people will go through the normal progression of mental and emotional reactions, yet for many the spiritual reaction will either come last or not at all. It will be easy to see that ‘life as usual’ will be gone and there will be a host of theories as to why things have changed, and most will blame it on those with wealth or power.... but The One Who holds all power will truly be The One creating the changes.

People will fear and flee and they will have only one goal and that will be to stay alive at all costs. This will create a scenario in most countries, of violent civil unrest and the authorities will be overwhelmed. Those who are prepared will be in a position of having to defend their assets, for those who have lived irresponsibly will think that they are entitled to whatever anyone else has without regard for ownership rights.

The good and prudent will therefore be forced into a position of armed resistance, a position that most are not comfortable with, but it will be so. So a warning to those who have prepared, learn the art of defense and do your best not to take a life; for God loves all His children and wants justice to reign on Earth, so you will only be justified in the Eyes of God to take a life, if yours (or those whom you are in care of) are in the immediate threat of death or a reasonable assumption thereof.

The Old Covenant taught a life for a life, but I tell you that a life is only to be taken if it immediately and eminently threatens the life of another. Further, you must help the weak and defenseless, for the meek are favored in the Eyes of God and you will receive great rewards for protecting these. They too must receive the ‘Complete Truth’ and have an opportunity to live it prior to physical death, for their souls are just as important as another.

This is the purpose for these end times events...to shock humans out of their self-reliant attitudes to a point where they reach out to God for salvation and protection from the evil one; for if any go to their graves in sin and unrepentant...the eternal consequences are far greater than 10,000 years of Calamity.

God made Earth and He made man all with a Plan of great reward and full communion with God, and this Plan has not changed but man has changed, and changed to a point where Truth is no longer recognizable to the average person. Truth however has not, and man is still judged by righteous judgment, not the type of justice that you now commonly see in most courts of the world. There is an Absolute Truth, and there is Absolute Justice, and it has always been the same; and man needs to come back to it, recognize it, repent, be forgiven, do the necessary penance, and move forward in righteousness, holiness and purity, which will move them to the heavenly realms.

This is the Plan and all must know it, accept it, deny sin, and live within it; there are no exceptions in God's Courts, and a 'not guilty' plea is meaningless if the person is anything short of holy. I have explained in detail in these Letters exactly how and why all works as it does, and it all is perfect...and it all is pure...and it all is in The Plan of the One Who is Infinite and Omniscient. You were not generated from slime, you were magnificently created and even the smallest elements of you are perfect and function in line with God's Plan, and they obey God every second of every day—but you humans were graciously given freedom of choice, so you must choose to perfectly align with your Creator every second of every day; and if you do not you are outside the Plan of God and you mock The Creator with your life.

Understand this for I tell you this in love so that you will obtain the Eternal Reward, the reward that is greater than human existence itself, a reward that allows one to grow to be like God...experience all the wonders of all the universes while living forever in perfect health, love, stature, and peace.

I continue to warn severely, but I do it only in love and for the benefit of all mankind. Please accept My Words and live."
