

THE REALM OF SOULS

“The Realms of Wisdom, the Realms of Knowledge, the Realms of Learning, the Realms of Purgatory, the Realms of Hell, the Realms of Heaven, and the Realm of Souls; I have told you a little about all these in My Letters yet there is much more to each that is not known to you humans...so much that the bits of knowledge would exceed the count of all the atoms in all the seas of your world. The complexities of all existence outside your simple realm of Earth are far above the imaginings of the human mind, and only a glorified mind such as there is in Heaven would begin to understand the depth and breadth of such.

I say to you all...unlock yourselves from the prisons of your own minds limited by the confines of the Earth, and reach out for God and His Knowledge and His Wisdom and His Love and Mercy. There is far far more to eternal existence than what any know, especially those trapped in the Curse of the world.....My poor humans.

Today I will speak about and impart some wisdom to you of the Realms of Souls. These are realms where God puts souls that He has made in His Love and in His Grace, where He allows ‘beings’ to be produced that have potential properties far higher than physical objects or other creations that do not possess an eternal soul. An eternal soul is the basic foundational building block of all the higher creations, for it gives the ‘being’ ‘life’, and life eternal in the form that it is. A soul has no body nor physical properties, rather it is made of light elements that coalesce in a formed group that never disperses and can react to external input from God and other Holy Beings. Souls are blessed mightily, for they have eternal opportunities to become many things in many universes, including human beings on Earth.

The act of creating a soul is a blessed event, and with every new soul completed there is a great celebration in Heaven for all who are allowed, and for all who had input into that new soul; they knew the ‘Mind of God’ and the place in The Holy Plan that each soul would encompass. The creation of a ‘full being’ is one of the greatest events in Heaven. God constantly creates all living things in uncountable universes...all physical things, all growing things, all things that have locality—but the creation of a being is the most revered, and indeed adds another potential being to the final realms of existence.

These souls exist in the Realm of Souls forever if no new path is chosen by them, and they take in knowledge and wisdom and experiences that are imparted by God and the Holy Ones, and they assimilate and retain this knowledge. There are many Great Souls in the Realm who have been there for a very long time, for they are satisfied with who they are and are reticent to willfully move to another realm; for all realms that are potential paths of improvement, growth, and glory, have pitfalls and dangers associated with them that must be considered, especially that path through the Realm of the Earth which has a severe Curse, and this is well known in all realms of creation.

This realm also has the greatest opportunity for great glory to a soul, such as the inculcation of a spirit, the formation of a body, the short testing period on Earth that can lead to Heaven, and the attention of a glorified body...all the while retaining the soul as it was originally created. This is why you see so many souls choose to enter the Realm of the Earth even with all its dangers, and in the full knowledge of the parallel realm that Satan and his demons inhabit. The soul studies the risks and advantages of the life-test on Earth and makes a well-informed decision to move from the Realm of Souls, then an appropriate human subject is found to deliver the soul to human existence and the Test begins.

The soul also knows that it will not be continuously aware of its existence prior to entering the Realm of the Earth, and that all the eternal decisions that it makes will have gifts or consequences associated with them. All who are delivered to Earth strongly believe that they will succeed and attain Heaven, but unfortunately the Curse and evil are seductive and many are lost. Precious are these to The Father, and soon the Earth will no longer be a path of choice for the Realm of Souls.

This is who you are...all who read this. Make your choices wisely."

Question: I don't understand, there seems to be a discrepancy in calling in one instance, 'The 'Realm' of Souls' and in the other instance The 'Realms' of Souls. It seems to be a contradiction.

"Without locality you may not be able to see how all the realms interconnect. It is a principal that only a few would understand who have been educated in Physics and such...with a being who has no locality, I can refer to realms in the plural and in the singular and still be accurate. Think of the analogy of Chuck Missler as 'the hand in one dimension' goes directly thru another. For the sake of simplicity and understanding, I will allow you to change all to the plural, but this will hide an important element of wisdom. So be it."

Can I put your explanation in and leave it as is?

"I have given this knowledge to you, you may impart it to others if you wish...carry no verses, just your question and answer."
