

YOUR WAY FORWARD

“Yes My children, you will make it through the threatening virus season, but not without loss and death. Many of you reading this will have known of one taken by this pestilence and while you grieve, their death was quick and merciful. Most deaths are not without serious penance if the one has unsettled sin, but this end-time trouble came with ingredients of mercy, albeit still a strong warning from God. The next warning will have less a component of mercy and as you move forward in time each judgment (for the purpose of urging beings to salvation) will come with less mercy, and this trend will follow until the end when the Earth as you now know it is no more.

For those who need salvation these will be blessed to live longer in to the Time of Trouble, for when most rational humans see the measure of the destruction and the origins of such—they will realize the Divine origins and turn to worship God and accept His salvation. This of course, excepting those sold out to Satan...and their destruction is sealed. For those who have seen the warning to this point and who are beginning to see the spiritual in it, you would be very wise to turn to The Lord now rather than later, for you like all sinners need time for forgiveness and expiation; and as I have said before, penance is rapidly accelerated while the subject is still on Earth...and in the Realms of Correction occurs very slowly but very thoroughly as all sin and the implication thereof are washed completely clean until nothing but love and purity remains.

What comes next you may ask...and I will tell you some of it so as to prepare those searching and to edify the Saints and to prepare the Remnant. As this pandemic fades, another will replace it only much more deadly to the broad spectrum of the public; and in the midst of this terror, there will be major geological events and diverse weather of a frightening type which will inflict much destruction and death all around the world. You will have little time to prepare and reflect upon the previous warning, when another will occur.

The areas of the world that are the deepest in sin will receive the most severe warnings as you can well understand. These cataclysmic events will grow worse and worse until nations begin to rise against one another and war of many types and severities will ensue. Some nations will be no more and many will be unrecognizable after all events occur and many will die...yet many will be saved by the Word of God, the service of those in the last days' service to God and the Remnant who inhabit the missions, the temporary refuges and the permanent refuges.

For those of you who have a family not yet committed to God, you would be wise to follow the words of the Prophets who tell you about the last days, for you will need to know your way forward and advise as to where to go, what to do, and what not to do. This will be the last chance for salvation for many, and when I say 'last', I truly mean the eternal last chance. You must be saved in order to have an eternity in the presence of all that is good, for without salvation, there are no other options for your eternal soul and spirit, for they never die and they have location and God must put them somewhere predicated on the choices that the being made while in Earth's testing phase; so know that you do not and you cannot, just die.

Immediately after you take your last breath while on Earth you will then realize another reality....that of the spiritual realm; and you will be as fully aware of it as you are your surroundings now. It will be your new abode and you will be met by those whom you knew on Earth and some that you did not. You will be shown some things and then you will be ushered to the Presence of The Holy One, Who will tell you exactly where you are to go and why. There will be no doubting this instruction, for it is of you and generated by you—and you will go.

Make your 'way forward' one of love, peace and all that is good. Pursue righteousness, holiness, and purity now.

With loving instruction,

Ruach HaKodesh”

—John Patmos
