

REALMS OF CORRECTION

“As you were lamenting that you are not worthy to hear the Words of The Lord...I corrected you and informed you of the failures of many of those who espouse to believe in Me, and even many of those in positions of leadership of My flocks who have deep and dark hidden sins in their lives even as they display righteousness to all who look to them for wisdom and advice. These are the ones who stand in front of Me as ‘the Naked Emperor’ who has no clothes and they think that I cannot see the depths of who they are and every sin, large or small. They have built the ‘house of who they are’ and they live comfortably in it, yet they are outside My Plan and My design for them.

Sin cannot exist in My Plan and certainly sin cannot exist in any of The Realms of Heaven, so remedies must be applied. In human life while on Earth these remedies entail repentance, forgiveness, penance, and expiation...no sin is fully excused and removed without this process. Then when one dies, if in My Mercy and if dying with sin, the one must be purged of all sin and all the extensive ramifications of it in order to be justified by The Father... for no one enters Heaven with sin.

This expiation process in the Realms of Correction are thorough and complete and they do not stop until every element of sin is corrected and dissolved, and this is, and can only be done by fire—for fire burns away all impurities and leaves only that which God ordains. The being that walked the Earth is burned by the Spirit of Fire down to his foundation and then the rebuilding process begins and it continues until nothing but love and purity remains. It is necessary that the being be completely dissolved...for that being was constructed by a corrupt human mind that allowed the house to be built in a sinful way that offended its Creator; and in order for it to return and exist with their Creator, they must be acceptable to Him. He is Perfection in all aspects of life and within all that exists and He will not and cannot, have imperfection within His Holy Realms; and this is why in His Mercy that He allowed for a ‘second chance’ for those who chose not to obey Him while on Earth during their testing phase.

This of course for only those who are in His Mercy and this is a very complex area within the Covenant. For those who are not in His Mercy they become damned and they have no opportunity for correction, for they have in full knowledge of the Creator chosen to deny, mock, and thwart all that He is doing for the salvation of mankind. These will receive no mercy as a pet dog would not if he went to the baby’s room, pulled the infant from the crib and killed it in madness and without mercy, then when discovered, attempted to do the same with the remaining family members and the master of the house. This dog would be immediately destroyed with not even one element of mercy and such is the case with the haters of God.

Yet even with them throughout their mortal lives, God attempted to bring them back to mercy on many occasions, both overtly and within their spirits; yet they closed themselves off to the love and mercy of

The Father and to the promptings of The Holy Spirit and to the Sacrifice of Jesus the Christ and all angels and others who were sent to intervene. These have chosen their way forward, and for them there is nothing left for eternity but pain and suffering at the hands of the Evil One who hates them passionately; for they are creations of The Holy One and Satan will always remember his defeat and his isolation in the pit of Hell, forever and ever. Such creations are repugnant to him and he takes great pleasure in their destruction.

Know all of you who read this, that your existence is of an extreme high priority and that every thought and action is recorded and weighed against the 'house' that you have built of yourself. Build that which is righteous, holy, and pure and you will not taste the bitter brew of correction and certainly that of Hell.

Live well in love."
