

LIVE TRUTH

“When you hold to your love for God, despite all that the world and naysayers throw at you, then you grow in spirit and truth. Is this not how The Word teaches us to worship, in spirit and truth? It is your determination, as you pursue all-important choices in life that differentiates you from those who fall away. Hold fast to God and His Word, and be not afflicted by the evil persuasions of those who are lost...and you will be eternally blessed.

Hold fast to all that you have learned about God, and strive to learn more; for as you rise in wisdom, your God smiles on you, and His smile gives health to the bones. As the Bible says, the Wrath of God is terrible; so you must always diligently try to please Him, and strive to be obedient to all that He commands.

God is good, and all that is good comes from Him. As you are good, you also are one who comes from Him—and you become more like Him. Goodness is a byproduct of obedience, and obedience of faith, and faith of knowledge, and knowledge of the Word, and the Word of God. Stay in the Word, and learn all that you can while on the Earth; for this will serve you well in the eternity to come.

Pray to discern truth from fiction, from the lies of the evil one, from espousing's of demons and conjurers, from false doctrines of convenience, from all that is flack. Pray to know the Pure Truth; for in it is the key to eternal salvation, and total union with God. This is where you need to be, in all that you do.

Live the Truth, dedicate your life to the truth, become truth, and relay it to all who will hear. For this you will be richly blessed, and your station in Heaven will be complete...as you walk in righteousness, holiness, and purity.

This is the diagram for your spiritual life, and if you follow these instructions, you will be risen up above the things of the world, and you truly will become an Apostle of God.

See Truth.....feel Truth.....know Truth.....and live Truth.....

I give you the power for your asking.
