THE CURSED WORLD AND THE PERMANENT RECORD

The question was asked, “Will those who attain Heaven be aware of the sin and pain that they experienced while on Earth?”

“All in Heaven is love, and all in Heaven will live within love; and after the New Covenant terminates, all knowledge of the cursed Earth and its history will be kept in the annals of the libraries in Heaven...and all memory of it will be wiped away from the memory of all those in the heavenly realms.

The die will be cast, and this burden will no longer be carried by any of God’s chosen people....they will be free of all that inhibits love, and growth to be as their Father. They will be free to love and grow for all eternity, and there will be no memory of those loved ones lost to sin.

Few will visit the library that holds the annals and records of the times and places of destruction, and these records will only be opened in the presence of the Lord; and as I have said before, The Father God will never again create a realm, or any living thing, that will be subject to corruption.

As Jesus said on the cross, ‘It is finished’, as it will be; and the sadness will only be carried in the Mind of God—His love for creation will have it no other way. Praise God for His termination of evil. He reigns on high forever and ever. Amen.

Another question: “Will we know the ones that we had no chance to meet while on Earth.....such as aborted or lost children?”

“You will recognize and love one another.”

Question: “Will we show affection like we do on Earth, such as by kissing?”

“Love is expressed in different ways that are far more meaningful than expressions on Earth....but this surprise will remain a pleasant secret.”

Question: “How will those that were close to us but, those who we never met, be able to find and recognize us?”

“_____ will visit the house, and he will know a connection there, as will _____; and they will sense a feeling of home, but the Lord will provide other means for them as well. They will be happy and secure.”

Question: “How can we let them know that we care for them, it is like grief expressed over a loved one who has died?”

“Just like _____ and _____, your sadness goes up in the form of love, so it mitigates the sorrow.”

Question: “All knowledge of the past on Earth purged from our memories?”

“It will be called ‘The Day of Great Transformation’.”
