

Q & A – 2

What is the Marginal Heaven like?

“It is like the most wonderful place on Earth, then magnified by over a thousand times. It is indeed glorious and all there are very happy and living in love. It is quite large, and this realm goes on and on, giving the inhabitants plenty of opportunity for exploration and learning; and many here focus on rising up in the spirit and growing in the knowledge of God so that they may have new realms opened to them.

Many in the Marginal Heaven have no homes, for they did few works of charity while on Earth or deleted their structures that they had previously built by sin unexpiated. These are still quite satisfied with their heavenly existences and they are extremely thankful that they live within this realm and can advance as they honor God.

There are also many in the Marginal Heaven who are completely satisfied with their place and make no effort to grow out of it; they just bask in the love and wonderment of it all and coexist with all else in perfect harmony. These also are loved greatly by God and all the Great Spirits and they are given graces continuously.

The Marginal Heaven bears semblance to Earth, but all is perfect; there is no sin and all live in love. Beauty abounds, and there is no death nor sin...nor is there a capacity to sin, so it will never be. Jesus frequents the Marginal Heaven as does The Holy Spirit, the Holy Mother, and all the Great Spirits; and any from higher realms who are capable of being seen by those in the Marginal Heaven come to visit as well.

It is a realm of great gifts and it is a great gift for all who attain it. Those who graduate from the realms of correction end here after their purification, and they are given the same opportunities of growth that all have, even those who had no stay in the corrective realms. Entrance to the Marginal Heaven for new souls will be closed at the end of the Millennium, for by then all realms of correction will be emptied and closed—never again to be opened.

There are homes as well in the Marginal Heaven and some go from this realm to others as they span as many realms as the owner built while on Earth through righteousness, holiness, purity, and good works for God’s Plan. Those who live in these will have the ability to move within the various realms freely, until such a time that they grow such in the spirit, that they are no longer able to be seen by those in lower realms; then the home will be moved higher to the compatible realms and God will provide for all others living there who no longer have a place to stay.

No one is denied a place of abode in any of the realms of Heaven. There are many community homes in the realms of Heaven for those who did not build one of their own while on Earth; and these will always be inhabited, for after one attains Heaven, the ability to 'send materials up' from the Earth ends and the building process stops. Therefore any who do not build their home while on Earth, do never have a home of their own...and will live in the community homes, or homes of those who invite them to stay in Heaven.

God's love pervades all of Heaven and all are happy and completely satisfied there, whether in their own earthly built home or not. God will provide for all His children."

What is the Millennium like?

"It, of course will be on the reformed Earth after God patches it up and cures the ills that came from the Calamity and the Time of Trouble. It will not be perfect, for sin and the memory of it will still be present; but those living during this time will have many advantages, the greatest of which is the physical presence of Jesus The Christ who will rule and reign there for the duration that God has set forth.

The time setting will be more like the Earth years of the eighteen hundreds and technology will not be prevalent. People will have the time and the peace to work an honest day and ponder the wonders of God and His plan for them. They will still have the same goals and hurdles that they need to satisfy in order to move on to Heaven, and these will be made clear through the teaching of Jesus The Christ and through all previous Words from God in all ages past.

As the ones attain righteousness, holiness, and purity, they will move on to Heaven and they will be replaced by another that God chooses; and this process continues until the end of the 1,000 years when Satan is loosed for a time and a great war occurs; and those who choose evil are sent to Hell after judgment, and those who choose Christ are sent to the Marginal Heaven.

When this time is complete—the time on Earth will be no more, all areas of correction will be forever closed, Satan will be banished to Hell and the Lake of Fire forever, and the human experiment will be completed in the physical realms outside Heaven. God will then bring the New Heaven and the New Earth and New Jerusalem, for all humans to inhabit; and they will be theirs forever...as they are the overcomers.

We will look at your many other questions as we go forth in this time of questions and answers.

Peace be with you."

A few follow-up questions were later allowed.

Will there be procreation and babies in the Millennium?

"Learning the ways of God will be the priority so there will be no need for the infant period, and only those who had attained the age of accountability will be in the Millennium. There will be no new souls given to the Millennium, but humans will still maintain the same physical presence and opportunities for righteousness and for sin."

Will there be marriage?

"There will be no bonding by marriage in the Millennium."

Will those who die during the Millennium, (because they have attained righteousness, holiness, and purity) 'die' in the same way we do on Earth?

"No, they will be translated."
