

Q & A – 3

At the Second Coming, why is it necessary to burn the Heavens and establish a new Heaven?

‘But the day of the Lord shall come as a thief, in which the heavens shall pass away with great violence, and the elements shall be melted with heat, and the earth and the works which are in it, shall be burnt up. Seeing then that all these things are to be dissolved, what manner of people ought you to be in holy conversation and godliness? Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of the Lord, by which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with the burning heat? But we look for new heavens and a new earth according to his promises, in which justice dwelleth.’ 2 Peter 3: 10-13

“You will recall that I have said that all humans will go to their relative realms after the physical death, thus no human life will exist on Earth until the time of the Millennium. Then the Earth will be reformed to the needs of that 1,000 year period and so will the Heavens. In this verse, I am not referring to the heavenly realms that are inhabited by the faithful; rather I am referring to heavenly bodies that surround Earth and interact with Earth. This will all be part of the symbiosis of the new Earth and the new Heavens. The curse will be gone and all that contributed to the curse will be gone.

You and others will recognize Earth and the Heavens, but they all will be different.”

For those who are workers of God during the Millennium, and move to and from the heavenly realms to Earth; will they gain more righteousness, holiness, and purity, and can they lose any graces?

“For those who are already in Heaven, yet those who are chosen to work with Jesus in the salvation of those there, they will not fail...for they have already gained glory and their glory will be poured out on those who need to learn and grow during the Millennium. There will be no loss, just a wonderful existence in the presence of Jesus The Christ, filled with His love and mercy. New realms will be opened to those who serve Him faithfully during this time, and all those who are saved by their individual efforts will be friends and companions in Heaven for all eternity. There will be some sorrow, for those who do not rise up in the spiritual and righteousness, and who are lost to Satan at the end; but these workers will know that they did all they could to distribute truth, mercy, and love—and the remembrance of the lost will be deleted at the Time of Transformation. All will work to the glorification of God and His eternal plan, and sin will be no more. Take heart, all who are sanctified in the Spirit.”

Are there different Heavens for the other minor creations?

“Yes, indeed there are; and humans who attain glory will be allowed to visit them as they rise to the authorization to visit these realms. All are separated by the walls of the realms and all humans will hold some keys and gain others as they rise to meet and understand their Creator.”

Are there different salvation types for other creations?

“Yes...many. All creations were made within a plan and that plan had specific instructions for the attention of righteousness; and in following that plan, all creations who were released from God have the ability to return to Him in glory and then still move higher and closer to He and His Kingdom.”

Is our Heaven just a small place within the overall Kingdom of God?

“No, it is not a small place, for it goes on forever; yet with the intersections of the realms it can lead to the Kingdom of God, which is the highest of all realms in Heaven.”

Will there be variations in the eras to come?

“Yes, as I have said, they will be predicated upon the learning and advancement of all who are in Heaven, and God will modify the physical and spiritual reality as all rise up to meet Him. To this, there is no end.”

What is the biggest surprise to all who arrive at Heaven?

“There are many. Some will see the glory, yet be told that they must expiate in a realm of correction; for the modern Christian this is the most common surprise. For those who served well and lived the Whole Truth, they will be amazed by all that God has made and they will fit perfectly within it; and will live in wonder, amazement and in love for all eternity as they grow to be Great Spirits. This is God’s Plan for all.

We will have one more Q & A next week, then resume My specific messages for those who wish to know the way forward as we approach the Calamity and the last days of earthly existence under sin.

Peace be with you, and courage in The Lord.”
