

MY LOVE

“My Love is far beyond the human imagination and it permeates all of Creation except that which is evil. It even resides on the planet that you call Earth and it comforts all who know and receive it. However, due to the magnitude and effects of the Curse, none can fully experience My Love and it comes to all in a weakened and diluted state.

My Love can be accepted or rejected and can be lived within or pushed aside, this is the freedom that I have given man in their glorious state in which I made them. If humans were to completely live within My Love, they would have complete protection from the Curse and would live a blessed life; then upon physical death, would be transported to a realm that would allow them to completely experience My Love to the degree of glorification that they had attained by their degree of righteousness, holiness, and purity, while in the time of testing on Earth.

Then My Love would be far greater in its effect on them, and it would virtually flow through them and all that is around them in a stream of virtual existence. It would actually be the life force that causes them to exist and coexist with all life forms around them. It would be their light and all that sustains their glorified body, it would be the partner of the spirit and soul and would carry the being to wherever and to whomever they wish. It would be all wisdom and learning, for those who wish to know more about their God, and would take them to higher heights personally, and in the environments that they inhabit, as they draw closer to God and move from realm to realm—all of which brings one closer to the Kingdom of God, where He resides and communes with those who have attained this state.

My Love was the first governing principle for all that I have done, and it is the foundation for all Creation in all universes and spaces that I have made and it will go on forever and ever. My Love is why you exist, for Earth and man would never have been a thought in My Mind, had I not wanted to share My Love and communion with another being and life forms. My Love is communion, and the highest form of love is intimate communion of a perfect kind, of which you are taught in My Word.

This is what I want for all of you, for you all have great value to Me; for there is no limit to My Love, and there is no limit to the bounty of My Love that I can share with all creations everywhere. I know that this reality is difficult for you to imagine, and I am difficult for you to understand; but I had to create you in this manner...being man and having certain covenants and principles that guided your existence; but you also were given unlimited rights to grow and be like your Creator by these same principles and covenants and this is a great blessing in God's Plan; for humans, if they will fully accept God's Love and live within it, can attain a state that few of God's creations are allowed or created to attain.

This is all found in My Love, and if you accept it and explore within it and grow within it, you will know all that I have planned for you; and you will flow in the 'river of life' that gives you freedom and brings you ever closer to your Creator. It is the only vehicle that you will need to take you to all the places that God has made for you; and it will be your guide and your teacher and you will grow within it to be a close companion of God and He and you will be fully edified and will live in the perfection that has been ordained for you.

Do not be a day outside of God's Love and Plan for you; reach out for it now and forever."
