

WHAT IS REAL AND WHAT IS NOT

“There is a great delusion over man and the Earth because of the Curse and this causes spiritual blindness. This type of blindness is far worse than physical blindness or the loss of physical components, because it can lead to the complete loss of spiritual freedom in the life that follows the physical life on Earth. However, spiritual blindness can be restored and the Curse overcome by a disciplined approach of searching for God through His Word and all that He has put forth for man to see, hear, smell, touch, and taste; but most of all searching the Creation and God through the sixth sense of ‘spiritual touch’.

All beings have this sixth sense, but most humans suppress it and allow their temporal persuasions to nearly diminish it completely; and in doing this, cut off the spiritual connection with The Father and all that He represents. This is spiritual death and leads to a permanent separation of the soul and spirit from God in a permanent realm of pain and suffering. God is real and only a fool could doubt this, for even in the physical realm of Earth, proof exists everywhere. All a person must do is to open their scientific eyes and open their spiritual eyes to the Truth and the proof will speak for itself.

God loves all His creations and wishes for none to suffer, but in order to overcome the Curse one must proactively pursue God and must want to live in a manner of holiness, righteousness, and purity in order to please God and in order to live in the perfection of the original Creation.

This I will tell you of that which you do not see. There are many realms around all creations that The Lord has made and Earth is no exception. There is one directly surrounding the physical realm of Earth that is inhabited by spiritual forces such as angels, demons, Great Spirits, and Satan himself. This realm is as real as the one that humans see and experience and it controls many aspects of life in the physical realm.

If you could see the constant flurry of activity in this realm, your poor human senses would be overcome and you would die physically, that is unless you were viewing it with your sixth sense, and this understanding would save your human anatomy from destruction. These events in the spiritual realm are so violent, insidious, and evil, that man cannot conceive of it; yet the evil by which all functions there, is evil in its purest form and seeks to destroy all that God has made.

This evil can also cross the realms at times to the physical if the ‘door of realms’ is intentionally left open by a human. This is how demon possession occurs and many times demons are allowed to roam free in the physical in order to subvert God’s Plan and corrupt all living things to the point of submission to evil and permanent isolation to a realm where Satan is the master.

As you look at daily life on Earth and view some of the events that you consider to be deplorable—if you could see with spiritual eyes you would see demons there...coaxing the person to action and blinding them to the Truth and to all that is good. In witchcraft and the actual worshipping of evil, you would see demons performing the most horrible actions to humans to the point of utter exhaustion of your soul. This is real, and this is the battle for souls that rages now in and around these realms of Earth; and it will intensify directly ahead because now Satan and his minions have been thrown down and isolated to Earth and its surrounds for this last short period of Earth's existence—and they know it, and so they battle furiously to take as many souls to their kingdom as they can, for as they gain souls it is permanent, and none can escape from their lair.

God's forces are also battling furiously in this time to save souls and intercede to help man return to God and the heavenly realms. This is all controlled by the Covenant and all must operate within it, both good and evil; and human prayer has a great effect on this war, for prayer unleashes the power of the angels to work in the side of that which is good and to intercede in the earthly events of man. The lack of prayer and active pursuit of evil or the passive acceptance of evil gives power to those on the side of evil, and in these last days of Earth there is far more power being given to those that represent evil, and this is why God must end the human existence, for His Plan was for good, and now that good is being overwhelmed by evil; many souls are being lost.

A God of Love cannot allow this to continue, so be prepared as you see the terrible events and the war unfold directly ahead of you; and be a prayer warrior to unleash the powers of good until the end. Your prayers are real and you and all creation will soon see that the war is real. Thrive in your 'spiritual touch' and you will understand these events and you will die in peace.

I am with you always, even until the end of the Earth."

For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood; but against principalities and power, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places.
