

THE PERFECTION OF THE DESIGN OF GOD

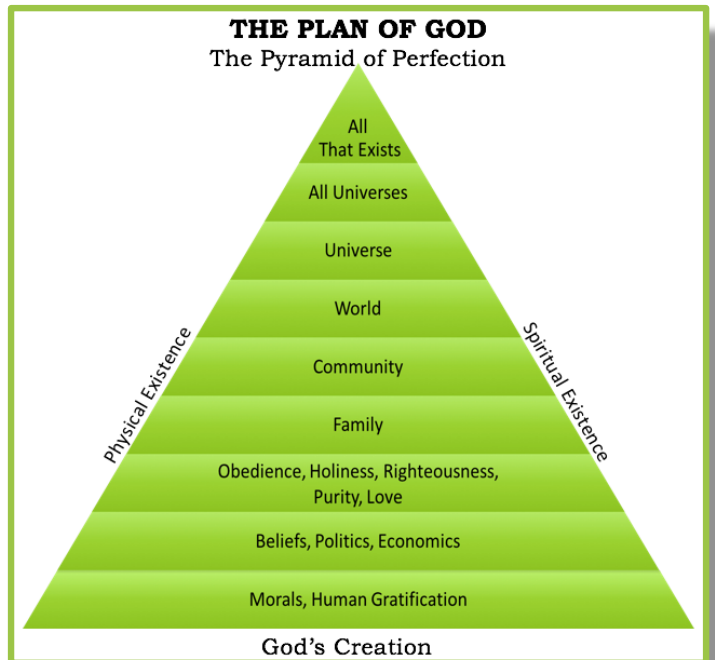

“God and man.....God made man in His image and intended for man in all ways to live and grow to be as He is. However due to willful sin which brought the Curse, God’s Plan of perfection was subverted and sin crept into all aspects of life on Earth, and now the corruption is pervasive even in His holiest places. Thus God must act to bring this errant planet and all its inhabitants back into compliance with God’s Laws and Plans, all of which were given to the benefit and edification of all His Creation on Earth.

You may say that you do not see evidence of an all-inclusive evil, yet you look through the eyes of man without the filter of the Holiness of God, and without a complete knowledge of the Truth which in its incomplete form is not worthy of thought. Man now has little knowledge of the absolute Truth because of the acceptance of evil influences divergent from God’s Word that appear to replicate the teachings of God, yet bow to the Evil One and all that he espouses. This subversion has occurred slowly and as a process baked in Satan’s kitchen of evil since the time when he was thrown down from Heaven.

He has known exactly what he must do to turn all from God and the Truth to his twisted and evil way of thinking, and he has executed on his plan with great patience; and now he knows that the end is near, so he takes out all stops in order that as many as possible may be corrupted and captured for his eternal realm of Hell.

His plan has several key principles, yet the most effective of these important ones is to have humans conceive of a mentality that sets them up as their own god and empowers them to make and change laws that were initially drafted for the holy service of God. These laws extoll the virtues of the creation rather than The Creator and set the creation up as the top of the pyramid of life—at least this is what those in power would desire all to believe; for they have truly made themselves the receivers of all that is good and this on the backs of all who serve them. They pass laws that throw a few crumbs from the table of the controllers to those that they exploit, and this is just enough to gain loyalty and suppress revolt. They pass responsibility to any who do not agree with their insidious control structure and take from them as well to silence them and any who are averse to their plans, all of which glorify and idolize the creation in direct disobedience with the Ten Commandments of God.

God’s Plan was drawn to be good for all and to give all the means and opportunity to attain eternal glory and blessings beyond human perception. Humans are a favored creation with many opportunities to acquire the blessings of God, but these opportunities ride on the human will and the proper exercise of it; for when humans act in accordance with the Laws of God, all is well for all, not just for the favored few, but for all who are obedient in the Plan of God.

God's Plan was set solidly upon the foundation of perfection, for God is perfect, and as all who serve Him live and grow to this perfection, all functions in an excellent fashion and all are glorified and edified. This is the case for the individual, family, for his community, and for his government, for his world, and for all else that exists. When perfection is the goal of all, all benefit...for the perfection laid out in the Word of God edifies all. However when man is at the top of the pyramid, unless that man or men are striving for holiness and perfection—selfishness and sin creep in...and then those who serve begin to serve that which is evil, and that example then pervades all of that society or world.

This is what has happened to Earth in the name of freedom and for the benefit of all—God's Perfection has been sidelined and the evil ideals of man have been substituted; and the result has been that all manner of evil has been accepted as good, and true good has been pushed aside as being biased and intolerant; however the absolute Truth is the least biased and intolerant mode of thought, but it excludes that selfish quest for power and acceptance of freedoms to do any sinful act that is in the imaginations of man. These evil freedoms that are espoused to be 'human rights' are truly not freedoms at all, and for spiritual eyes of the wise, the perception is bondage.

Truly as one selfishly exploits righteous freedoms in deference to evil freedoms of the flesh, one slowly builds an eternal prison of pain and suffering for themselves; and those who selfishly take power and property from others in the guise of freedom, will have all power and property stripped from them, as they sit forever in a putrid cell of eternal confinement in their master's kingdom of suffering.

Man cannot be the top of the pyramid, God must be; and man must always strive to be like Him, for as man becomes like The Father, all are raised to all that is good for all. Any structure that does not employ this principle will fail, whether here on Earth or in carrying the principles of evil to the afterlife.

Strive to be as your Father, children. You will forever be grateful that you did.

Blessings with the wisdom,

Ruach HaKodesh"
