

SHADOWS

“When does any of God’s creation cast a shadow? Can a human cast a shadow without a source of light? Does a shadow emit from an exterior source that is darker than the body or must the source be brighter? Does absolute darkness cast any shadows? Does this principle suggest that The Creator had purpose and order to His creations?”

Yes, there is perfect order to all that exists, unless evil and curses spoil the sequence of order...and this is what you see today. Evil has drawn beings to it and casts its seemingly benevolent evil upon them and they emit the learned shadow of activity from that which is learned, and this becomes the ‘norm’ for the being unless there is significant intervention to change input and outcomes.

This is what begins with great force during this calendar of Earth’s years...that of 2021. Many believe that this will be a year of recovery and returning to a normal life cycle, but it will be anything but this. God’s Plan to return His Creations to Him has begun and it will continue full force until the end of time and the coming again of Jesus The Christ for His final redemption in this phase of Earth’s time.

There will be no mercy in these events unfolding, other than that allocated on an individual basis; and that largely determined by the direct intervention of the Holy Mother of Christ. All else in Heaven and all realms know of The Father’s Plan and they do not dare pray against it, rather they will just pray for mercy for the ones that they love.

The Holy Mother has by her very nature, and will always have an immaculate heart with no limits and this will always be, so The Father and The Son and The Holy Spirit will always listen to her intercessory prayers for mankind, for she was once a part of it and she understands the human state of weakness and the great Curse that had to be imposed upon all Earth and the realms surrounding. Thus her heart cannot be silenced in the quest for mercy for all that she loves, and The Father hears.

The overall events of the Plan going forward however, cannot and will not be changed. God has ended the New Covenant and moves forward with the last attempt of this time to gather all souls that are willing back to Him and His heavenly realms. Those who do not willfully come now, will be lost with no hope of salvation.

This may sound harsh to the listening ear, but all else under Heaven has been tried throughout mans’ history to redeem him and most have failed; and this because the free choice through the will of man chooses evil rather than good—and in choosing evil, man has chosen Satan over God; for all that is good is of God and all that is evil is of Satan; and the follower of Satan will not be redeemed simply because he is a creation of God...rather he will be allowed to follow for an eternity that which he chose.

There is great responsibility as a human being, for the potential rewards are unimaginable and all in God’s Plan is perfect; so for everything that is great on the scales of justice and mercy, there must be an equal offset on the other side of the scales. You, as a human did not get just 'dropped' on the Earth in a happenstance manner, you were educated of the rewards and the dangers and you chose freely to come to Earth to pursue the Great Realms of Heaven; and by choosing you knew the costs for failure, but in your state of free will you chose to dismiss them.

Now that you have only a glimmer of remembrance of your origins, you do not hearken the call of The Father and rather come to Satan as he calls you by his lurid temptations and his ideas of a diminished God. Pity, is all that one must feel when viewing a failed human, for his future is clear...and it is pure suffering and pain for all eternity.

Now as you see great events, plagues, disasters, unnatural events, mass deaths, and the like; you must in your wisdom come back to The Father, repent and do your penance freely and willfully in the full knowledge of your failures and with a heart that truly wants to serve God.

This will be your only path to salvation now and for the few years of Earth's time directly ahead. Choose whom you serve, now and forever."
