

GOD IS ALL

“To whom you call God...give glory, for He is all good, and all righteousness, and all holiness; and in Him is nothing that is not good. He is The Alpha and The Omega, The First and The Last, and The One Who without—there would be nothing. He is The Creator of all realms of existence, and the very reality that accompanies all creations. He set all boundaries and put everything in motion, and He is The One Who sustains all.

He is in all, except that which is evil, and Realms of Growth and Learning, and He is a part of every living thing. He sees all, He knows all, and His Being pervades all. All belongs to Him, and all is controlled by Him, and nothing can exist without Him. He is the Perfect Love and the Divine Mercy. He is more that any created being can imagine.

You are fed by Him, and you breathe because of Him, and your fragile existence is sustained by Him. With one word—He could terminate time, change the universe, start life, end life, reward the living, and judge the dead. He can be all to all, or He can be a Father to one. His love never fails, never stops, and will always be there for those who love and obey Him; and His love conquers all. His love sustains life, and all who are in His realm live from His love, and are pure of heart.

He is The Father to all; but those who choose to expel Him from their lives have this power—the full power to destroy themselves. Why would anyone choose death over life, and wonderful fulfillment set aside, for evil and suffering? Ask yourself this—for it is a great mystery to all who live in the spiritual realm. It is the great conflict, and one that will not be resolved until God terminates life, and time as it is known on the Earth. The conflict will then be over, never to arise again in that realm.

God has the right to do this, for all creation exists for His great pleasure, and to honor Him. He truly deserves the honor, for without Him no one would exist; and in His Infinite Wisdom, He created this Divine Plan that serves to make all, His beloved children—and it is good. Only disobedience and weakness of character and love, and a willful choice not to serve Him, brings down His perfect Plan; and those who do this are the enemies of the Divine Love, and they have their place in the fires of the evil realms.

Take warning from this illumination and obey your God; for He is very near taking His final actions on this Earth, and the inhabitants thereon. You will want to be on the side of The Lord when this happens—it is in the near distance and it approaches quickly. When you see the son of perdition rising up, you will know that the end is near. Keep your eyes wide open, and learn from My Word and be saved.”
