

FAITH IS REAL

“When you put your faith in the things of man, you will always be disappointed. They pass like the wind, and you are left standing alone, and wondering. Put your faith and hope in the things of God, and you will always be blessed and at peace.

Winds will blow, but anchored in immovable faith you will get through even the worst of storms; and through it, God will lift you up. More grace, more mercy, more blessings, more knowledge, more peace; it is all related to faith—and what is faith? Is it like a fantasy, or like an experience while reading fiction? Not at all, for faith in God is founded in truth and a carefully documented historical account of biblical events, all the way back to Adam and Eve.

These documents are supported by eye-witnessed writings, all which are supported by other witnessed accounts from those who were involved in the events, and from others whose responsibility it was to put them in writing. Even the original scrolls have been discovered in some instances...those also supported by copies of the originals, which came later.

In spite of numerous attempts to destroy all knowledge and written accounts of the religions of the past, by God’s intervention they survived, and are there for all to see and appreciate today.

Faith is also based on supernatural experiences that have happened throughout history; and even now, the astute observer is seeing many activities of the spirit realm, and many people are having visions, and visitations, travel to Heaven and to Hell—real experiences that are provoked by nothing but the Truth; and God allowing this truth to be piercing the veil between the physical and spiritual.

These occurrences will become much more frequent in the near future; and this for the salvation of those who doubt and have weak faith. Look for these and evidence of them, and look at them through your eyes of reason, and see if you can deny their authenticity; you will be overwhelmed and amazed by what God will do before the Calamity in order to save a few more, before many die as this time on Earth comes to an end.

Watch closely, and seek out spiritual and supernatural events, for they will strengthen your faith; and faith will lead you to knowledge, and knowledge to salvation, and salvation to Home.

May the grace of faith be with you.”
