

WHO CAME TO SAVE YOU?

“Who comes in the Name of The Lord to give peace to the masses? Who comes to free man from the Curse of the world? Who comes to give freedom eternally, to all who call on His Name and obey His Laws, His Words, His Covenants, His Writings, and who accept His Love? Who comes to free you from the evil one, and the damaging effects of his assaults on you? Who comes to give you purity and forgive all your past sins? Who comes to complete God’s promises to His creations? Who comes to die, that you may be saved? Your Master, your Savior, your King, and your Brother—Jesus The Christ.

He came to accomplish this and much, much more. Without Christ, most would be hopeless to ever see the Heavenly Realms, and live forever in peace.

He was bruised for your iniquities, beaten for your indiscretions, flogged for your disobedience, spit upon for you lack of holiness, struck with rocks for your failure to attain righteousness, thrown down for your life of impurity, nailed to a cross for your sins of all kinds; and He died to redeem you from yourself, and your traveling on your path to Hell.

Would you do this for anyone that you do not know? Would you do this for your father, your mother, your siblings, your children? Would you do this for the very ones who hate you, and put you on the cross? Christ did...and as He hung, bleeding and dying, He asked The Father to “Forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

The greatest love is to give one’s life for another. Would you do this? This is the Jesus that you serve, and He loves you beyond all that you can imagine, and He wants to be with you—forever. How can you deny this act of Supreme Love, and not want to be in His Kingdom and worship and trust Him to be your King and Provider of all that you will ever need?

How can one turn their face from Christ and worship and obey the evil one, knowing that by doing this your destruction is assured? How can any God-created creature rationalize their way to this conclusion? Even under the influence of Satan and his evil associates, how could you choose your own demise?

Does this make any sense to you at all? Do you do this out of complacency, unbelief, failure to acknowledge all the physical and spiritual complexities that are all around you—shouting to you that they too were created by God? How can anyone turn their head from the Truth and doom themselves?

This is the mystery in Heaven and the profound mystery of the angels. They shudder at the ignorance of human beings, because they see all the souls that are culled and dropped into Hell; many for much less reasons than humans typically think are acceptable and humane actions, of a normal person.

Never forget—you were created to be a companion of God, and cleave to Him in all that you do in your holiness. Times have changed, but God and His laws have not. Do not let the current of time carry you away from your Holy Father, and all the holy saints that pray for your salvation, and who wait to accept you in the Heavenly Realms.

This is the plan for your eternity. Do not destroy yourself in the few short years that you have on the cursed world called Earth.

Be wise, choose truth and beauty.”
