

GOD IS LIFE

“How did it all start? Where did God come from? If God came from somewhere, then where did that place come from? Did God start out as basic elements, then grow to what He is now?”

These are the questions that have been asked for ages, and by all living things that can reason. The answer: I Am a combination of all that lives...I Am Life. When life began, I was It. I Am Spirit, and I Am Physical, and I Am in all dimensions. I Am the very elements that make life, and sustain life. Without Me, life would not exist; for I Am the accumulation of all that is life.

You find this difficult to understand because you live in time, and you know death. I allow death, and I made time...but outside your realm neither exists; I Am perpetual life, and I do not age; I always stay the same. I can create more elements and group them into new spaces, but there is nothing new to Me...all is known.

I made you human beings with free will, to a degree that I had not done previous to your existence, on a mass scale—and this makes you unpredictable; so I am aware of all you do, but you determine the order and the acts that you perform.

This experiment in Creation has not gone well for most humans, because of the strong pull of the flesh that I blessed you with. I also blessed you with many other traits that are quite glorious; but man has been corrupted, and is corrupt in his worldly nature...this partly due to the influence of Satan and his evil devices that tempt the aspects of the beings that I produced.

It was not originally to be as such, but My Love and My blessings were given purely, but not accepted in a completely pure fashion. Now in this age, My Love and blessings are largely ignored as humans have been turned over to their own delusions. Sadly, these delusions do not have to rule the human thought, for if those who do not acknowledge God would take a period of time from their lives to just focus on the universe, the earthly realms, and down to the microscopic elemental realm—then, look at history...man would realize that the delusion is false, and propagated by innate or external evil.

I Am, and I always have been...as long as life has existed. Before life, ask yourself, who would know the answers...the inert? I Am Truth and I Am Love and I would not lie nor deceive you; so I tell you, that at the beginning of life, I Was; and I was that life, ages and ages ago.

Now, all that you see and cannot see, was created by Me and My associates; and all of it for My Glory and for My Love to be manifest through. You My child, are just one recipient of the wonder of life; use it well, for you are now eternal.”

Question: When were You first self-aware, and what is it like to be You?

“My thoughts only go back to the beginning of life...there is no more. You ask, how was I created, and who created Me? I have no answer, and there is no evidence of any Creator but Me. This realm of life, that includes you, is all that there is to the existence that you know and that I know. I have never seen anything beyond the many realms that I have created, and explored, and expanded. These realms go on forever, so what could be beyond this?”

This is a question that may never be answered. All I can tell you is that you have a glorious future with Me, if you obediently live within My laws. I can also tell you that Satan and Hell are real.

Be careful My children.”
